

KANSAS CITY • 5550 TROOST AVE

FLAVOR WORTH GEEKING OUT OVER.

WHAT WE FOUND

- The product works: 4.8★ on DoorDash, KC's biggest Black food creator is a fan, "Home of the Adult Meal Deal" is repeated by creators.
- He doesn't exist on maps: Google shows his address as a liquor store. A wing shop with zero reviews ranks #5 near Troost just by being listed.
- #1 is reachable: the city's #1 wing spots rank with 120–259 Google reviews at 4.7★+.
- The hours miss the crowd: Friday 7 PM is the building's busiest hour, and that's when the kitchen closes.
- Risks to fix first: liquor-brand menu names, "Adult Happy Meal," the unconfirmed shot license, and confirming name ownership (WING BOYS LLC).

// THE REAL PRODUCT

THE BOX IS ALREADY WING-NERDS

Stills from the supplier's video of the actual printed carry box. The handle already reads IN-N-OUT · WING-NERDS · 5550 TROOST AVE; the sides carry the chicken, the graffiti "NERDS GOT FLAVORS" art and the Uncle Keith's Lemonade badge. This is the most authentic brand asset he owns. Every photo shoot and post should feature it.

GOT FLAVORS? WEAR IT EVERYWHERE.

The graffiti art from the real box, rebuilt as a flat pattern: "Wing Nerds," "Got Flavors?," "Kansas City," "Flavor Lab," crowns, wings and the glasses chicken. It already runs down the side of the new menu and now runs down the side of every page in this report. Use it as the brand texture on menus, menu-board borders, cups, bags, window decals, social frames and merch. Reconstructed art for review, not the supplier's print file; get the original file from the box printer for production.

THE UPGRADE VISION

WHERE WING-NERDS IS GOING.

Concepts for the upgraded store, menu, packaging, mascot, advertising and the people it's for. These show the destination; the roadmap at the end of this section shows when each piece is worth paying for.

THE COUNTER BECOMES THE AD

Two screens over the counter (brand + Adult Meal Deal), branded pickup bags, a "Good wings. Better people." wall sign and "Flavor Lab KCMO" wall script. This is the visual target for the in-store refresh: screens, lighting, paint, counter graphics.

✖ TODAY

A kitchen counter inside a convenience/liquor market; a mixed WING-BOYS / NERDS logo; no menu board readable from the queue; posters.

✓ THE UPGRADE

A branded kitchen zone: two commercial screens (brand loop + Adult Meal), a readable menu, branded bags, a "Wing-Nerds kitchen inside →" sign. Planning range $9.7K-$12K, hard cap $15K, only after the Part 4 gates

A MENU THAT SELLS

Signature menu, latest version (Oct 9): refreshed Fresh Paint logo, a full spray-painted graffiti frame, box-graffiti panels, a cinematic Adult Meal Deal photo ($24.99), a "Build your batch" wing grid and a "Find your flavor alter ego" flavor picker. Built from all 45 live items on the Troost Toast menu (checked Oct 9), with spelling normalized and the original prices kept. Before printing: confirm prices and hours, and rename the liquor-brand items: sliders (Jack Daniels, VSOP, Cognac Crunch), dogs (Don Julio, 1800, Diablo 1738), strips (Casamigos), and the wing sauces "Henny Time" (Hennessy), "Crown Me" (Crown Royal), "Fireball" and the Casamigos rub. The QR still points to the Wing Boys Toast page.

EVERY ORDER LEAVES BRANDED

The real graffiti gable box stays the hero (front of book). Upgrades: the graffiti paper tray for every item (Upgrade 03C), a mascot-printed lemonade cup, and a low-cost kit: order seal sticker, sauce identity labels, a QR "Flavor Report" card that brings people back, and a counter placard. Kit estimate from the proof: about $75–150 for a first run (Avery DIY labels ≈7¢ each; printed stickers ≈56¢ each). Planning figures, not vendor quotes.

01

LOW-COST BRAND KIT

Three small systems that make every pickup feel intentional.

01. ORDER SEAL + ACCURACY CUP
Round sticker on the outside of the existing duck bag or box, with thermal transfer (these are printed on a small accuracy pad). Start with one lookup and one doc.

02. SAUCE IDENTITY LABEL
Use a small color dot or name label on flyover sauce items are ordered. Two to make sauce and grease before ordering a bit.

PROTOTYPE COST ANCHORS
Avery DIY: $57/400 for 4 labels = 7¢ each
Order Maker: $55/100 for 10 labels = 5¢ each
Budget: variable, for labels, but $100 for 10 labels is a good guide.

IMPLEMENTATION NOTE
Keep the design flat. Add one extra seal, one sauce identity treatment, and one stuff dispenser. The value system is cheap, repeatable, and easy to photograph.

See the resources, design and the business plan in the book and the video in the book.

02

FLAVOR REPORT CARD

A QR report and counter placard turn one order into the next visit.

03. QR FLAVOR REPORT CARD
Report back to the adult meal or hand it out at pickup. The red box should be replaced with the QR code on the card. Do not print it until the offer is approved.

04. COUNTER PLACARD
A small rigid sign with logo, current promotions, and QR. Keep one in the store. Use the same. Use the same design for the book, the photo.

RELEASE CHECK BEFORE PRINT

- Verify all QR codes are valid and working in the field.
- Verify signs are clear and visible. No need to print them out until they are approved.
- Check content of all signs and QR codes. No need to print them out until they are approved.
- Check content of all signs and QR codes. No need to print them out until they are approved.

RECOMMENDED SEQUENCE
Prototype one sticker, one card, and one placard. Test them on a real truck bag, cold lemonade cup, and pickup order. Then approve a short run and reuse the same art in social posts.

The glasses-wearing chicken from the box has become a crew of three, approved Oct 9: tan, white and brown, each in the real uniform (black tee, Wing-Nerds apron, "Adult Meal Deal" pocket, lime nerd glasses). - On Google Maps, Wing Boys does not exist. There's no listing under "Wing Boys" or "Wing Nerds" anywhere in the Kansas City metro. At his address, Google shows only the host store, "In-n-Out Market & Kitchen," categorized as a Liquor store.
- He's also missing from Yelp, Apple Maps, Bing Maps and Tripadvisor. No listing on any of them.
- The only places he exists online are Toast (ordering), DoorDash (where he's filed under Burgers, not wings), Uber Eats (no rating), Instagram (1,925 followers), and other people's Facebook and Instagram creator videos.
- He's unranked for "wings" across Kansas City on every map and review platform we checked. His only organic appearances are #10 for "wings kansas city" (through his Instagram) and #3 for "wings troost ave" (through DoorDash).
- Overall visibility score: 25 / 100 (grade D).
- The good news, and the main finding: in this market you don't need 1,000 reviews to rank. Wing Lovers USA is #1 citywide for "chicken wings" with 259 reviews. Wing Studio is #1 for "best wings in Kansas City" with 120 reviews. A wing shop near Troost with zero reviews (Jay's Lemon Pepper Wings) ranks #5 just because it has a Google listing. Yelp's citywide top 10 includes two shops with 1 review each. Wing-Nerds is losing because he isn't listed, not because he's out-competed.
- The plan to #1 (section 9) sets four tiers of "#1":
 - Own his name and "Adult Meal Deal" in 30–45 days.
 - Win "sliders" near him in 60–90 days.
 - Reach the top 3 for "wings" within about 1 mile of Troost in 4–6 months.
 - Compete for top 3 citywide "best wings" on Google Maps in 7–12 months. The benchmark is about 150–260 Google reviews at 4.7★+, which his order volume can realistically produce.

1. HOW THE RESEARCH WAS DONE (AND ITS LIMITS)

SOURCE	METHOD	NOTES
Google Maps	Searched directly in a clean browser (logged out) at two map centers: citywide (downtown KC, zoom 12) and local (55th & Troost, zoom 15)	Sponsored results removed from rankings
Google organic search	Through Startpage , which serves Google's results without personalization. Google itself blocked automated searches with a CAPTCHA; I don't bypass CAPTCHAs.	Your phone's results will differ slightly by location and history
Yelp, Tripadvisor, DoorDash, Toast, Instagram, Apple Maps, Bing Maps	Each platform's own public pages and search	Instagram counts read from public profile metadata
Missouri Secretary of State	Public business-entity search
WHOIS	Domain registration lookup
USPTO trademark search	Queried, but results unreliable (a known term also returned 0)	Trademark clearance UNVERIFIED

These are snapshots from one day, not a rank tracker. Positions move daily. Section 11 has a monthly re-check log so progress can be measured on the same queries.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 1

2. WHY HE DOESN'T EXIST: ROOT CAUSES (EACH VERIFIED)

#	CAUSE	EVIDENCE (OCT 8, 2026)	EFFECT
1	No Google Business Profile has ever been created	Google Maps searches for "wing boys," "wing boys 5550 troost," and "wing nerds" return competitors only. Searching his own name puts Wings 'n Things Express first (4.2★, 645 reviews).	Can't appear in Google Maps, the map pack, "near me" results, or Google's AI answers. This is about 80% of the problem.
2	Google sees the address as a liquor store	5550 Troost resolves to "In-n-Out Market & Kitchen – Liquor store ," 4.8★ (22 reviews), open until 11 PM	Even people who know the address don't see a wing shop
3	No Yelp, Apple Maps, Bing or Tripadvisor listing	Yelp search at his own address returns Go-Chicken-Go, Wing Stand, The Peanut. Apple Maps shows only "Zap In N Out" at 5550 Troost. Bing Maps returns no business. Tripadvisor search returns nothing relevant.	Invisible to iPhone users (Apple Maps), Bing and ChatGPT search, and every platform AI assistants pull from
4	No website	wingboys.com belongs to a domain reseller (DropCatch, 2024). wingnerds.com , wing-nerds.com , wingnerdskc.com are unregistered (WHOIS).	Google has no authoritative page for the brand, so Toast, DoorDash and Facebook stand in, all under the old name
5	Wrong category on DoorDash	DoorDash lists him as " Burgers "	He doesn't surface when DoorDash users browse "Chicken" or "Wings"
6	His reviews are trapped where they don't count	DoorDash: 4.8★, "10+ ratings • 1 public review ." Uber Eats: "N/A" rating. Toast directory: 2 reviews. Google: 0. Yelp: 0.	Reviews are the #2 ranking driver after the profile itself, and he has none where they count
7	Name split mid-rebrand	Every live platform says "Wing Boys." The new materials say "Wing-Nerds." No "Wing Nerds" business filing in Missouri. WING BOYS LLC is active (charter LC014370692, formed 4/11/2022, registered agent Keith Murrell).	Search engines can't tie the new name to the business. A Facebook video also calls Troost "Wing Boys' third location"; the other two locations are UNVERIFIED .
8	Conflicting hours	Toast: Tue–Sat 11 AM–8 PM, closed Sun/Mon. DoorDash today: 11:00 AM–7:40 PM. A Facebook post by creator page Diskcover816 (Jan 2026, not by Wing Boys): Sun–Thu 9 AM–11 PM, Fri–Sat 9 AM–midnight, most likely the market's hours. Google (the market): open until 11 PM.	Google trusts inconsistent businesses less, and customers arrive while he's closed
9	Social isn't connected to anything findable	IG @wingboys_kc: 1,925 followers, 2,225 following (it rose from 2,140 during the day, so someone is mass-following), 106 posts. Bio has no link. No TikTok account.	Creator buzz produces likes, not map visits or orders
10	He's a business inside another business	The kitchen shares the market's address and phone (816-895-3498)	When he does apply, Google may treat him as a duplicate of the market unless he has his own sign, phone and hours (see §8)

One sentence: he has real customers, a 4.8★ product and creator buzz, but he never told Google, Apple, Yelp or Bing that he exists, so to them the address is a liquor store.

■ 4C. GOOGLE MAPS: "WINGS" NEAR 55TH & TROOST (HIS HOME TURF; ADS REMOVED)

RANK	BUSINESS	RATING	REVIEWS	DISTANCE FROM 5550 TROOST (APPROX.)
1	Peanut on Main	4.4	1,239	~1.0 mi
2	Wing Studio	4.9	120	far (Raytown); ranks on strength alone
3	Black WallStreet	4.2	156	~1.5 mi (Prospect)

10	Go Chicken Go	4.2	4,291	~0.6 mi (5101 Troost)
—	Wing Boys / Wing-Nerds	—	—	0 mi: not listed

Key insight: #5 on his own turf is a shop with zero reviews that simply has a listing with the category "Chicken Wings." On the day Wing-Nerds' profile verifies, he enters this list, probably mid-pack, before collecting a single review. (That's a projection, not a guarantee.)

■ 4D. YELP: "CHICKEN WINGS" IN KANSAS CITY (CITYWIDE TOP 10)

RANK	BUSINESS	RATING	REVIEWS
1	Wings Cafe	4.4	349
2	The Peanut (Plaza)	3.9	275
3	92 Chicken	4.1	97

8	Wingstop	4.7	3
9	Game Day Chicken Wings Burgers & Fish	4.7	162
10	Wing King	4.0	1
—	Wing Boys / Wing-Nerds	—	no Yelp listing

Two of Yelp's citywide top 10 have one review. A Yelp listing alone would make him competitive here.

■ 4E. TRIPADVISOR: "BEST WINGS IN KANSAS CITY"

Q39 Midtown (3,672 reviews), Gram & Dun (960), Char Bar Westport (560), Jack Stack Freight House (4,062), Jack Stack Plaza (2,090), Jack Stack Martin City (954), Scott's Kitchen (122), Yard House (350), BRGR (446), Minsky's (368).

These are tourist-driven BBQ and bar rankings. Low priority for a pickup wing shop. Claim a listing for completeness only.

■ 4F. GOOGLE ORGANIC: "BEST WINGS KANSAS CITY" (TOP 10)

1. doawintoday.com "Definitive Ranking" · 2. Reddit r/kansascity · 3. Yelp top 10 · 4. Facebook "Kansas City Secrets" thread · 5. Mr Wingz · 6. Tripadvisor · 7–8. InKansasCity "We asked Redditors" · 9. Wing Studio · 10. Grubhub · (11: TikTok "best wings in KC" featuring Hood Dude)

The organic "best wings" page is won by lists and threads, not restaurant websites. You win here by getting into the lists (doawintoday, InKansasCity, Reddit, Yelp, Facebook groups), not by out-ranking them.

■ 4G. GOOGLE ORGANIC: "WINGS KANSAS CITY" (TOP 10)

1. Reddit · 2. Tripadvisor · 3. "Kansas City Wings" food truck (Florida, irrelevant) · 4. Wings Cafe · 5. Yelp · 6. doawintoday · 7. The Kitchn recipe · 8. Wing Lovers USA · 9. Buffalo Wild Wings Zona Rosa · 10. WING BOYS Instagram ← his only citywide organic appearance

5. KANSAS CITY WINGS VISIBILITY INDEX (ALL PLATFORMS COMBINED)

How each business performs across the four lists that matter most for a local wing shop: Google Maps citywide, Google Maps "best wings," Google Maps near Troost, and Yelp citywide. Each list is worth up to 25 points, scaled by rank. 100 = #1 on all four.

INDEX RANK	BUSINESS	MAPS CITYWIDE	MAPS "BEST WINGS"	MAPS NEAR TROOST	YELP CITYWIDE	INDEX
1	Peanut on Main / The Peanut	#7	#5	#1	#2	82
2	Wing Studio	#2	#1	#2	—	72
3	Wings Cafe Westport	#3	#3	#13	#4	63
4	Wings Cafe (Northland)	#9	#9	—	#1	48
5	Wing Lovers USA	#1	#2	—	—	48
6	Wings and Burgers (Halal)	#4	#8	#9	—	41
7	WingStand (Mission)	#11	#6	—	—	27
8	Wings 'n Things Express	#12	—	#8	—	23
9	Black WallStreet	—	—	#3	—	21
10	Dave's Hot Chicken	#5	—	—	—	20
...	92 Chicken, Brookside, GJ Fish & Chicken, Martin City Tavern, Jay's Lemon Pepper Wings (0 reviews)					17–20
—	Wing Boys / Wing-Nerds	—	—	—	—	0

What the top 3 have in common (the #1 formula):

1. A verified Google profile with primary category "Chicken Wings." Wing Lovers, Wing Studio and both Wings Cafes all use it.
2. "Wing" in the real business name. Wing Studio, Wing Lovers, Wings Cafe. Wing-Nerds already has this legitimately, which is a real advantage as long as the sign says it.
3. A high rating on enough reviews, not a huge count. Wing Studio is 4.9★ on 120 reviews; Wing Lovers 4.7★ on 259.
4. A website with direct online ordering (wingstudiokc.com, wingloversusa.com, thewingscafe.com).
5. Presence on Yelp and in the "best of" lists. Peanut is #1 overall because it's on every list and every Reddit thread.

6. HEAD-TO-HEAD: WING-NERDS VS. THE BUSINESSES HE MUST BEAT

	WING-NERDS (TODAY)	WINGS 'N THINGS EXPRESS (0.2 MI)	GO CHICKEN GO (0.6 MI)	PEANUT ON MAIN (1.0 MI)	WING LOVERS USA (#1 CITY)	WING STUDIO (#1 "BEST")
Google profile	✗ none	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
Google rating / reviews	— / 0	4.2 / 645	4.2 / 4,291	4.4 / 1,239	4.7 / 259	4.9 / 120

Signature product	Adult Meal Deal (unowned on Maps)	7 flavors, fish	wings, livers & gizzards	colossal wings	lemon pepper	big wings, house sauces
Creator coverage	Strong (8+ posts)	some	some	city-famous	low	some

Read: he matches or beats them on product buzz and social, and loses entirely on listings, reviews and a website. Those are fixable in weeks, not years.

7. OVERALL SCORE: 25 / 100 (D)

AREA	WEIGHT	SCORE	WHY
Google Business Profile / Maps	15	0	Doesn't exist
Map pack, category searches	10	0	Can't appear without a profile
Branded search ("wing boys kansas city")	10	7	Page 1, but only through third-party pages; competitor at #2
New-brand search ("wing nerds")	10	1	One IG caption
Hyperlocal ("wings troost ave")	10	4	#3 through DoorDash only
Category organic ("best wings," "wings KC")	10	1	Absent from "best wings"; #10 for "wings kansas city" through IG (corrected from 0 after re-check)
Sliders / campus queries	5	0	Absent
Reviews (volume + platforms)	10	2	DoorDash 10+ ratings / 1 public review; Google 0, Yelp 0
Owned website	5	0	None
Listing consistency (name, address, phone, hours)	5	2	Three different sets of hours; two names
Social	5	4	Healthy IG; following > followers; no TikTok
Earned media / creators	5	4	Strongest asset
TOTAL	100	25

Wing-Nerds is #0 on the KC Wings Visibility Index; he isn't on the board. The realistic ceiling after the plan below: 60–75 / 100 within 6 months (estimate).

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 1

8. RISKS THAT CAN SINK THE PLAN (ADDRESS FIRST)

RISK	WHY IT MATTERS	FIX
Google profile rejected or suspended (co-located inside a liquor store, shared phone, no sign)	Kills the whole plan	Own phone line · permanent Wing-Nerds sign · kitchen-only hours · name matches the sign exactly (no keywords) · proof folder (business license, health permit, sublease with the market) · space out big edits
Name and legal entity mismatch	Google and customers can't connect "Wing-Nerds" to "Wing Boys"	File "Wing-Nerds" as a fictitious name under WING BOYS LLC (Missouri SOS). Confirm Keith Murrell = Uncle Keith (UNVERIFIED) and who controls the IG, Toast and DoorDash accounts.
Trademark exposure	Liquor-brand menu names (Jack Daniels, Don Julio, 1800, 1738, Casamigos), "Adult Happy Meal ," Casamigos seasoning	Rename the menu before it goes on the Google listing. Keep "Adult Meal Deal."
Alcohol	The DoorDash review confirms "comes with a shot." Legality of serving it (a liquor-by-the-drink license) is UNVERIFIED . Alcohol limits Google and Meta ads.	Get the license answer. Keep listings and ads food-first.
Rating fragility	DoorDash 4.8 on about 10 ratings; one 1★ drops it to 4.45	First 25 Google reviews come from regulars, before any traffic push
Kitchen capacity	A spike can break the "15–20 min" pickup promise	One controlled push at a time; watch Toast ticket times
Fake-review temptation	FTC Consumer Review Rule: up to about $53K per violation for incentivized or suppressed reviews	Ask every customer; never pay or gate

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 1

9. THE PLAN TO #1

"#1" means four different races. We win them in order, easiest first; each win feeds the next.

TIER	RACE	TARGET	TIMELINE	WHAT IT TAKES
T1	His name and his product: "wing nerds," "wing boys," "adult meal deal kc," "wing nerds troost"	#1 on Google Maps + organic	30–45 days	Verified Google profile + website + consistent listings. Nobody else competes for these.
T2	Niche: "sliders," "sliders near me," "hot dogs" near Troost	#1–3 on Maps within ~2 mi	60–90 days	Secondary category Hamburger restaurant , slider photos and products, ~25–50 reviews mentioning sliders. Competition: Slideshow Sliders (39 reviews) and Smalls (suburbs).
T3	Home turf: "wings," "chicken wings," "wings near me," "wings near UMKC/Rockhurst" within ~1 mile	Top 3 local map pack	4–6 months	Primary category Chicken Wings , ~75–150 reviews at ≥4.6★, website, Yelp, campus content. Must pass Wings 'n Things (4.2★, 645) on rating and relevance, not volume.
T4	Citywide: "best wings in kansas city," "chicken wings kansas city"	Top 3 Google Maps; inside the "best of" lists	7–12 months	~150–260 Google reviews at 4.7★+ (the Wing Studio / Wing Lovers benchmark), press and list inclusion, Reddit and Facebook-group mentions, Yelp 50+ reviews

Review math behind the timelines (an estimate; replace with Toast data after 30 days): about 35 orders a day × 5 days × 3–5% asked-at-pickup conversion ≈ 5–9 Google reviews a week. 25 reviews ≈ 3–5 weeks · 75 ≈ 2–3.5 months · 150 ≈ 4–7 months · 260 ≈ 7–12 months. Doubling orders roughly doubles the pace. Marketing that adds orders speeds up rankings.

■ PHASE 0: FOUNDATIONS (WEEK 0–1), GATE: NOTHING GOES PUBLIC UNTIL ALL ✓

1. Owner call: confirm name ownership (WING BOYS LLC / Keith Murrell), kitchen hours, the sign wording, the alcohol answer, and who controls each existing account.
2. File the fictitious name "Wing-Nerds" under WING BOYS LLC (Missouri SOS).
3. Dedicated kitchen phone line.
4. Install a permanent Wing-Nerds sign (interior plus window decal "WING-NERDS · Wings & Sliders · inside").
5. Rename the menu off liquor trademarks (Toast, DoorDash, Uber). Fix the Toast typos. Add item descriptions.
6. Register wingnerds.com + wingnerdskc.com in the owner's name.
7. Build the proof folder: business license, health permit, sublease or agreement with the market, a Toast receipt with the name.
8. Capture a 4-week Toast baseline: orders/day, channel mix, average ticket, repeat rate, ticket times.

■ PHASE 1: EXIST (WEEKS 1–3) → TIER 1 WIN

9. Create the Google Business Profile (owner account; marketing partner added as Manager). Primary Chicken wings restaurant; secondary Hamburger restaurant, Hot dog restaurant; real hours; own phone; Toast order link. Every field is pre-written in Part 5.

0. Verify by video: street → sign → kitchen working → proof of management.
1. Day of verification: 10 real photos, every menu item as a Product, description, attributes. Confirm Toast "Order with Google" shows on the profile (free and commission-free; auto-enabled with Toast Online Ordering).
2. Apple Business Connect, Bing Places (import from Google), Yelp, Nextdoor, Tripadvisor, all with identical name, address, phone and hours.
3. Website v1 live (prototype built): menu, Adult Meal Deal, catering, visit, "Join the Lab" SMS signup; Restaurant structured data; every button points to Toast.
4. Rename DoorDash's category to Chicken Wings (from Burgers) and update its name and photos. Same on Uber Eats.
5. Instagram: name and bio updated, website link, stop the mass-following. Claim the TikTok handle.

■ PHASE 2: EARN TRUST (WEEKS 3–8) → TIER 2 WIN

6. Regulars first: personally ask the 25–50 most loyal customers for a Google review in week 1 of the listing (before any promotion).
7. Review engine on every order: QR sticker on the box, counter card, Toast receipt link. The ask: "Tell KC which slider you got." That steers review wording toward "sliders," "Adult Meal Deal," "wings."
8. Reply to 100% of reviews within 48 hours (24 hours for negative ones, and take the issue offline).
9. Weekly Google post (new flavor, Adult Meal Deal, campus offer) plus 3+ new real photos a week.
0. Real photo/video shoot day: Adult Meal Deal hero, every top item, exterior, team, Uncle Keith (his call).
1. Creator capture: ask Hood Dude / The Epitome KC (same creator), KC Discover, Diskcover816 and KansasCityMack for permission to repost and to tag the new Maps pin and handle. Use their clips on the profile and website.

■ PHASE 3: OWN THE NEIGHBORHOOD (MONTHS 2–6) → TIER 3 WIN

2. Campus play: UMKC and Rockhurst student and staff deal, department catering trays, student-org partnerships; a `/catering` and "near UMKC" section on the site.
3. Community and press: Black-owned directories and KC City Market lists (owner's choice to display the Google Black-owned attribute), Black Feast Week, Kansas City Blerds & Baddies / Heartland Mini Con (a natural fit for a "Nerds" brand), KCUR follow-up.
4. Yelp to 25+ reviews through the same ask-everyone approach (Yelp's guidelines discourage businesses from asking for reviews, so use a passive "Find us on Yelp" sign and never offer incentives).
5. Hours test: use the Google profile's search-timing data after 30 days to make the case for Sunday and/or later hours (the market is open until 11 PM).
6. Scoreboard every Monday (Part 4 §7): reviews/week, 30-day rating, profile actions, direct-order share, ticket time, repeat rate.

■ PHASE 4: GO CITYWIDE (MONTHS 6–12) → TIER 4 WIN

7. Get into the lists that own "best wings KC": pitch doawintoday, InKansasCity, The Pitch's wing tour and KC Star food writers with a tasting invite; get mentioned naturally on Reddit r/kansascity (no astroturfing); local

TikTok food creators' "best wings in KC" series.

8. Paid amplification only after the gate: rating ≥ 4.6 , ≥ 5 new reviews/week for 4 weeks, ticket times holding. Then Google Local Services/Maps ads on "wings near me" in a 3-mile radius, and Meta ads with creator clips.
9. Signature event: a monthly "Flavor Lab Experiment" limited sauce drop, giving creators and press a reason to come back.
10. The store screen refresh (the $15K concept) only now, funded by proven demand.

13. STILL UNVERIFIED

- Now confirmed: Keith Murrell (LLC agent) is "Uncle Keith" (Part 7)
- The other two "Wing Boys" locations (a Facebook video says Troost is the third; none found on Maps)
- Liquor-by-the-drink licensing for the Don Julio shot
- Trademark clearance for "WING-NERDS"
- Real order volume (all review-pace math is modeled until Toast data arrives)

0. WHAT THE REPORT WAS MISSING

The visibility report explains how people find him. It doesn't say what makes a stranger order for the first time, and order again. These were the missing pieces:

MISSING PIECE	WHY IT MATTERS	WHERE IT'S COVERED
A first-order reason (offer and campaign)	Being found isn't enough; strangers need a reason to try a new spot over Wings 'n Things two blocks away	§5
A creator program with real reach numbers and terms	His buzz comes from mostly one creator; that's a dependency, not a system	§2, §5 C2
Social channels to add and fix , with specific settings	He's on Instagram only; most KC food-discovery reach lives on Facebook and TikTok	§3
Owned platforms : website, catering ordering, SMS list	Without owned channels, every customer belongs to DoorDash or Instagram	§4
Content system : pillars, series, cadence, shot lists	Random posts don't compound; series do	§6
Retention engine	A wing shop lives on the second and third order	§5 C7
Catering / B2B	One office order = 10–20 individual orders	§5 C4
Budget, calendar, measurement	Without them, nobody can tell what worked	§7–9
Kitchen-readiness check	Marketing that outruns the kitchen produces 1★ reviews	§10

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 2

1. WHERE HE STANDS (BUSINESS TYPE AND POSITION)

Business type: an independent quick-service wing and slider kitchen operating inside a convenience/liquor market (In-N-Out Mini Mart, 5550 Troost). Pickup-first, with delivery through DoorDash and Uber Eats, Toast POS, open Tue–Sat 11–8.

Strengths (verified):

- Product people rave about: 4.8★ on DoorDash, and the one public review calls the Adult Meal "so good."
- A signature, quotable offer: "Home of the Adult Meal Deal," repeated by creators.
- Creator coverage from KC's biggest Black food creator (Hood Dude Food Reviews / The Epitome KC, who featured Wing Boys in his "28 Black-owned businesses in 28 days" pledge, per Startland News).
- A real owner face: Uncle Keith, his lemonade and his cookies.
- Healthy Instagram: 1,925 followers. That's more than Wing Studio (1,688), which ranks #1 for "best wings" on Google Maps. Social size isn't what's holding him back.

Weaknesses (verified):

- Not listed on Google, Yelp, Apple, Bing, Tripadvisor or Grubhub (Grubhub searched at his address shows Wingstop, Luna's, J's, Wing Lovers).
- No Facebook page of his own found. The Facebook "hours" post that ranks for his name was published by Diskcover816 (a KC creator page, 18K followers) and lists market hours, not kitchen hours. (A full Facebook check needs a login, so this is UNVERIFIED.)
- No TikTok. His top competitor near Troost, Wings 'n Things, has no TikTok either, so that lane is open.
- Hours (closed Sun/Mon, 8 PM close) block the game-day and late-night occasions.

New lead (needs confirming): the market has 4 locations. The In-N-Out Mini Mart Instagram (@in_n_out_minimart_kcmo, 1,259 followers) lists 3201 E 51st, 5510 Prospect, 5550 Troost (its "3rd location"), and 4502 E 24th St. The grand-opening video calling Troost "Wing Boys' third location" probably refers to the market's third store. If the owners are connected, three more sister markets could host Wing-Nerds kitchens or pickup points. That's a real expansion path to confirm with the owner.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 2

2. KC CREATOR & MEDIA MAP (WHO ACTUALLY REACHES HIS CUSTOMERS)

CREATOR / OUTLET	REACH (CHECKED OCT 8, 2026)	RELATIONSHIP	HOW TO USE
Hood Dude Food Reviews = The Epitome KC (Glenn Robinson), IG @theepitomekc	40K IG ; about 125K across platforms (Startland); 100K+ per KSHB	Already a fan. Several posts, including yesterday (Oct 7). These two names are the same person; earlier docs counted them separately.	Anchor partner: rename launch, the first "Lab Test" episode, quarterly return visits
KC Discover (IG @kansascitydiscover)	11K IG · 222K Facebook · 70K TikTok (per their bio)	Posted the "KC Food Find: Adult Meal Deal" (Dec 2025)	Paid reach play. Their bio lists a promo line, so features are bookable. Best Facebook reach in KC.
Diskcover816 (Facebook)	18K Facebook	Posted Wing Boys with wrong hours (Jan 2026)	Ask them to correct the hours; offer a re-feature at launch
KansasCityMack	Grand-opening video (Oct 2025)	Past coverage	IG handle unavailable; reach out on Facebook
KCUR, Startland News, KC Star	Local press	Covered Hood Dude and the Black-owned business lists	Press angle: "a Troost kitchen renames as Wing-Nerds; Uncle Keith's story"
KC City Market Juneteenth list; Black Feast Week (Sep 2026)	Community lists and events	Already includes Wing Boys	Re-list under the new name; join next year's Black Feast Week
Kansas City Blerds & Baddies (Facebook group) + Heartland Mini Con	Black nerd community	No relationship yet	Perfect brand fit for "Wing-Nerds": sponsor a watch party or con table

Risk: most of today's buzz traces back to one creator. If that relationship cools, the buzz stops. The plan below spreads it across 5–8 creators.

Rule: every paid or gifted creator post must carry a clear disclosure (#ad / "paid partnership"), under the FTC Endorsement Guides. No paying for reviews.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 2

3. SOCIAL MEDIA: WHAT TO ADD AND WHAT TO CHANGE

■ WHAT THE RESEARCH SAYS ABOUT WHERE DINERS DISCOVER RESTAURANTS

- Toast's survey: 38% of Gen Z named TikTok as their favorite restaurant-discovery channel; across all ages word of mouth led (38%) and TikTok got 14% (Toast).
- MGH survey: 53% of Millennials and 38% of Gen Z have ordered from a restaurant after seeing it on TikTok (via PMQ). Vendor surveys; treat as directional.
- Takeaway: TikTok and creators drive discovery; Google Maps drives the decision ("where is it, is it open, is it good"). He needs both, connected.

■ ADD THESE (RANKED)

#	PLATFORM	HANDLE	WHY	EFFORT
1	Google Business Profile (posts, photos, Q&A)	Wing-Nerds	Where the decision happens; counts as social (weekly posts)	1 hr/wk
2	TikTok (Business account)	@wingnerdskc (or @wingnerds)	#1 discovery channel for under-35s; no nearby competitor is on it	Repurpose IG Reels
3	Facebook Page	Wing-Nerds	KC's biggest food reach is on Facebook (KC Discover 222K, Diskcover816 18K, "Kansas City Secrets" group). It's also where 35+ local customers, church groups and office managers are, and it's needed to run Meta ads properly	Cross-post
4	YouTube Shorts	@wingnerdskc	Google-owned; Shorts show up in Google search; zero extra production (same vertical videos)	Cross-post
5	Snapchat Public Profile (+ Snap Map place)	wingnerdskc	Large young local audience; Snap Map "Places" shows nearby food spots (overview ; official Snap docs not confirmed). Tier 2: add after the first 30 days	Low
6	Nextdoor Business	Wing-Nerds	Neighbor recommendations in Rockhill, Southmoreland, Brookside, Blue Hills	10 min/mo
7	Yelp + Apple Business Connect + Bing Places	Wing-Nerds	Listings that feed AI assistants and iPhone Maps	One-time setup
8	Threads	auto-linked to IG	Free extra reach from the same posts; low priority	0

Skip for now: X/Twitter, LinkedIn (except one catering post a month from the owner's personal profile, optional), Pinterest. These are low return for a pickup wing shop.

■ CHANGE THESE

PLATFORM	CURRENT STATE (VERIFIED)	CHANGE TO
Instagram @wingboys_kc	Display name "WING BOYS"; bio "5550 Troost Ave KCMO Located inside IN-n-OUT"; no link ; 2,225 following vs 1,925 followers (following went up during the day)	Handle @wingnerdskc (a rename keeps all followers) · Name: "Wing-Nerds · Wings & Sliders KC" · Bio: "Home of the Adult Meal Deal 🍗 Formerly Wing Boys · 5550 Troost (inside the market) · Tue-Sat 11-8 · Order 📞" · Link: wingnerds.com · Category: Chicken Wings Restaurant · Add the Order Food action button (check whether Toast connects; UNVERIFIED) · Highlights: Menu · Adult Meal Deal · Reviews & Press · Catering · Find Us · Pin 3 posts: the rename announcement, the Adult Meal Deal, how to order · Stop mass-following and unfollow back toward about 500 (mass-follow/unfollow looks spammy and drags down reach)
Instagram content	Big text over food; reviewer reposts in styrofoam	Food first and clean (text on the cover frame only), real packaging, Uncle Keith on camera, consistent series ($6)
DoorDash	"Wing Boys (In-n-Out Market & Kitchen)" · category Burgers · 1 public review · prices 20% above Toast	Name: "Wing-Nerds (formerly Wing Boys)" · Category: Chicken Wings · new photos for every top item · item descriptions · liquor-brand item names changed
Uber Eats	"Wing Boys – Troost" · no ratings · prices about 20% above Toast	Same rename and photos; ask regulars who use Uber to rate
Toast (ordering + directory)	"Wing Boys – Troost"; description "Come in and enjoy!"; typos; no item descriptions; directory hours conflict	Rename, a real description, fix typos, item descriptions and photos, one set of hours
Creator posts with wrong info	Diskcover816 lists market hours (9 AM–11 PM)	Polite DM: correct hours + "we're Wing-Nerds now"; offer a launch-week visit

// FLAVOR LAB • PART 2

4. PLATFORMS & WEBSITES TO BUILD

#	BUILD	PURPOSE	NOTES
1	wingnerds.com (6 pages: Home, Menu, The Lab, Catering, Visit, Join)	The hub every link points to; feeds Google and AI search	Prototype already built
2	Direct ordering: Toast Online Ordering + Order with Google	Commission-free orders; about 20% cheaper for customers than DoorDash	Already on Toast; Order with Google turns on automatically once his Google listing exists (Toast)
3	SMS/email list + loyalty ("Join the Lab"), on Toast Marketing/Loyalty or an SMS tool	Retention: second and third orders	SMS open rates are reported around 95%+ and offer redemptions often 15–25%; these are vendor figures, so track his own (FoodTec)
4	Catering ordering: a Toast catering menu + a <code>/catering</code> quote form; ezCater listing	Office and event orders	ezCater brings corporate buyers on a commission per order; rate not public (overview)
5	Toast gift cards (online)	Holiday sales (gift cards for Christmas, from late Oct)	Native to Toast
6	QR system	Box QR → Google review; counter QR → Join the Lab; menu QR → order	One printed sheet, three QR codes
7	Links page on the website (<code>/links</code>)	Replaces Linktree; keeps traffic on his own domain
8	Grubhub: not now	A third marketplace adds commission and kitchen load for little gain	Revisit once delivery demand outgrows DoorDash and Uber
9	Merch (later, at Gate G4)	Shirts, hats, bottled "Formula" sauce	Only after demand is proven

// FLAVOR LAB • PART 2

5. CAMPAIGNS BUILT TO WIN REAL NEW CUSTOMERS

Each campaign has a target, an offer, the channels, and how it's measured. None of them start until the Google listing is verified and the first 25 Google reviews are in (Part 4 gates). They run one at a time, so we can test whether the kitchen keeps up.

■ C1: "WING-NERDS IS HERE" RENAME LAUNCH (WEEK 1–2 AFTER VERIFICATION)

- Goal: convert existing Wing Boys fans to the new name and get first visits from creators' audiences.
- Hook: "Same kitchen. Same Uncle Keith. New name. Smarter wings."
- Offer (for joining the SMS list, never for reviews): "Lab Pass: free Uncle Keith's cookie on your first direct order when you join the Lab."
- Channels: an IG/TikTok reveal video (Uncle Keith flips the sign); Hood Dude launch visit; a KC Discover paid feature (Facebook + TikTok); Diskcover816 correction and re-feature; Google profile post; window poster.
- Measure: SMS sign-ups, Lab Pass redemptions in Toast, branded searches, new Google reviews.

■ C2: CREATOR PROGRAM ("LAB PARTNERS")

- Anchor: Hood Dude / The Epitome KC, one feature a quarter (launch, a new flavor, the catering trays, a holiday).
- Paid reach: KC Discover (222K Facebook / 70K TikTok) for launch and for the catering push.
- Micro creators (5–8): UMKC/Rockhurst students and KC food TikTokers with 2K–20K followers; gift a meal + their own discount code to track orders.
- Rules: written agreement on usage rights (so their clips can be reused in ads) and FTC disclosure.
- Measure: orders per creator code, profile visits, follower growth.

■ C3: CAMPUS TAKEOVER (UMKC + ROCKHURST, THE CLOSEST DAYTIME CROWD)

- Offer: "Study Fuel," a student/staff deal Tue–Thu, 2–5 PM (fills the slow afternoon rather than the lunch rush).
- Channels: campus flyers where allowed, student-org partnerships (Black Student Union, gaming and anime clubs, a natural "Nerds" tie), a campus micro creator, a "near UMKC" page on the site.
- Measure: a campus code in Toast; afternoon order volume.

■ C4: CATERING & OFFICES ("LAB KITS")

- Product: trays of 50/100 wings + slider platters + a lemonade gallon, ordered 24 hours ahead.
- Channels: an ezCater listing, the `/catering` page, direct outreach to 30 nearby offices, churches and schools (one drop-off box of samples plus a menu), and a LinkedIn post from the owner.
- Why it matters: one 50-person order equals about 15–20 individual tickets, booked ahead (an easier kitchen load).
- Measure: catering leads, booked orders, average catering ticket.

■ C5: GAME-DAY TEST (CHIEFS SEASON)

- The kitchen is closed Sunday and Monday, which is exactly when Chiefs fans order wings.
- Test: pre-ordered game-day trays picked up Saturday or before kickoff, or a limited Sunday pickup window (11 AM–2 PM) on 3 game days.
- Measure: pre-orders vs. the extra labor cost. If it's profitable, make Sunday hours permanent; that also opens the "open now" Sunday searches.

■ C6: MONTHLY "FLAVOR EXPERIMENT" DROP (THE CONTENT ENGINE)

- One limited sauce or slider a month, announced to the SMS list first, then on social.
- Customers vote on whether it joins the permanent menu ("Lab Test" series).
- Gives creators, press and followers a reason to come back every month.

■ C7: RETENTION AUTOPILOT (SMS / TOAST MARKETING)

TRIGGER	MESSAGE	PURPOSE
Joins the Lab	Welcome + Lab Pass	First direct order
10 days after first order	"Round 2: try a new Formula" + small perk	Second order (the one that matters most)
Birthday	Free cookie/lemonade	Loyalty
30 days with no order	"Lab misses you" win-back	Reactivation
Monthly	Experiment drop	Habit
Max 2–4 texts a month		Avoids opt-outs

■ C8: COMMUNITY & CULTURE

- Blerds / Heartland Mini Con: sponsor a watch party, con table, or "Nerd Night" tray deal.
- Black Feast Week 2027 (apply early), the KC City Market Juneteenth list, and Black-owned directories, all if the owner chooses to lead with that identity.
- One charity or community night a quarter (school team, church).

■ C9: PAID AMPLIFICATION (ONLY AFTER GATE G3: RATING ≥ 4.6 , ≥ 5 REVIEWS A WEEK, TICKET TIMES HOLDING)

- Meta (FB/IG) + TikTok Spark Ads: boost the best-performing creator clip to a 3-mile radius around Troost and UMKC, ages 18–54.
- Google Maps / Local ads on "wings near me" once the profile has 75+ reviews.
- Never advertise the Don Julio shot. Alcohol ads need age-gating and the liquor license is UNVERIFIED.

■ C10: SISTER-MARKET EXPANSION (HYPOTHESIS; CONFIRM WITH THE OWNER)

- If the owner is connected to the In-N-Out Mini Mart owners, test Wing-Nerds pickup or a satellite kitchen at 5510 Prospect, 3201 E 51st or 4502 E 24th.
- That's multi-location growth without building new stores.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 2

6. CONTENT SYSTEM: WHAT TO POST

■ PILLARS (TARGET MIX)

PILLAR	SHARE	EXAMPLES
The Food (process + payoff)	35%	Sauce toss in slow-mo, crunch sound, slider cross-section pull, Adult Meal Deal box build
Uncle Keith & crew (the people)	20%	Uncle Keith's lemonade recipe story, "Uncle Keith Says" one-liners, crew favorites
Customers & creators (proof)	20%	First-bite reactions (with permission), creator reposts, reading real reviews on camera
The Lab (drops & news)	15%	Monthly Experiment reveal, voting, "it made the menu"
Community & culture	10%	Campus visits, Black Feast Week, Blerds nights, game day

■ RECURRING SERIES (SERIES BEAT RANDOM POSTS)

1. "Lab Test": a customer tries the new Formula blind and rates it 1–10.
2. "Build the Box": 15 seconds assembling an Adult Meal Deal, ASMR style.
3. "Uncle Keith Says": 10-second wisdom plus a product.
4. "Rate My Order": a real customer's order, judged by the crew.
5. "Heat Check": heat-scale challenge with friends or creators.
6. "Campus Drop": surprise deliveries to a UMKC/Rockhurst org.
7. "Formerly Wing Boys": a short rename story (launch month only).

■ CADENCE

CHANNEL	FREQUENCY
TikTok + IG Reels + YouTube Shorts + Facebook Reels (same vertical video, posted natively to each)	4–5 a week
IG/Facebook Stories	daily on open days (specials, sold-out, behind the counter)
Google profile	1 post + 3 photos a week
SMS	2–4 a month
Website "Lab Notes"	1 a month ($6B)

■ PRODUCTION RULES

- Real food, real box, real people. No AI food images in public posts (the AI concepts show food and a Don Julio glass that don't match reality).
- Hook in the first 2 seconds; text on the cover frame only, never covering the food.
- Shoot one batch day every two weeks (2 hours, about 12 clips) so posting doesn't depend on daily inspiration.
- Every post ends with one action: "Order on wingnerds.com," "Join the Lab," or "Find us on Maps."

■ 6B. BLOG / WEBSITE CONTENT: HONEST VERSION

A wing shop doesn't need a traditional blog. People don't read restaurant blogs. But a few evergreen pages win specific searches, give Google and AI assistants facts to quote, and support catering sales. Build these:

PAGE	TARGET SEARCH	WHY
/catering: "Wing & Slider Catering in Kansas City" + a "how many wings per person" calculator	"wing catering kansas city," "how many wings for 20 people"	Catering leads; the calculator gets shared
/near-umkc: "Wings & Sliders near UMKC and Rockhurst"	"food near UMKC," "wings near Rockhurst"	Captures the campus crowd
/adult-meal-deal: what's in it, price, how to order	"adult meal deal KC"	Owns the signature phrase
/the-lab: the sauce/Formula guide with a heat scale	"lemon pepper wings KC," flavor searches	Relevance for flavor searches
/game-day: pre-order trays for Chiefs games	"wings for chiefs game," "game day wings KC"	Seasonal demand
/about: Uncle Keith's story and "formerly Wing Boys"	"wing boys kc," "who owns wing nerds"	Bridges the rename; press reads it
/lab-notes (1 short post a month)	Brand news	The monthly Experiment recap; keeps the site fresh

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 2

7. BUDGET OPTIONS (MONTHLY, AFTER SETUP; ESTIMATES; CREATOR RATES NOT CONFIRMED)

ITEM	LEAN ($500)	GROWTH ($1,500)	PUSH ($3,000)
Creator fees + gifted meals	$150	$500	$900
Paid social (Meta + TikTok boosts)	$150	$500	$1,000
Google Maps / Local ads	—	$200	$500
Print (QR stickers, flyers, campus)	$100	$150	$250
SMS/loyalty tools (if not in his Toast plan)	$50–100	$100	$150
Offers (Lab Pass cookies, game-day samples)	$50	$50	$200

One-time setup (estimated): domain about $25 · sign and window decal $300–800 · real photo/video shoot day $500–1,500 · website build (prototype exists) · dedicated phone line about $20/mo.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 2

8. 90-DAY CALENDAR

WEEKS	FOCUS	KEY ACTIONS
0-1	Foundations	Owner answers, DBA, menu renames, sign, phone, domain, Toast baseline (Parts 4 & 5)
1-3	Exist	Google profile verified; Apple, Bing, Yelp, Nextdoor; TikTok + Facebook Page + YouTube created; IG and DoorDash changes; website live
3-5	Trust	Regulars-first reviews (target 25); shoot day; QR on every box; SMS welcome flow live
5-6	C1 launch	Rename reveal, Hood Dude visit, KC Discover feature, Lab Pass
7-8	C4 + C3	ezCater live; 30-office outreach; campus "Study Fuel" + first micro creators
9-10	C6	First Flavor Experiment drop (SMS first)
10-12	C5 + review	Game-day test; 90-day scorecard; decide on paid amplification (C9)

// FLAVOR LAB • PART 2

9. MEASUREMENT: PROOF THAT IT'S NEW CUSTOMERS

QUESTION	HOW WE'LL KNOW
Are these new people?	Toast guest data : new vs. returning guests per week; first-time direct orders
Which campaign brought them?	A unique Toast promo code per campaign and creator; UTMs on every link; the counter asks "How'd you hear about us?" and logs one tap
Did they come back?	30-day repeat rate (Toast); SMS-driven second orders
Is Google working?	Profile performance: calls, directions, order clicks, searches by query
Is it profitable?	Direct-order share (Toast vs. DoorDash), average ticket, catering revenue

Report every Monday on the Part 4 scoreboard, plus: new guests/week, top 3 codes, SMS list size.

// FLAVOR LAB • PART 2

10. BEFORE SCALING: KITCHEN READINESS

- ☐ Peak ticket time $\leq$ 20 minutes, measured in Toast
- ☐ A written recipe/portion card for every item (same order every time)
- ☐ Packaging that travels (wings stay crisp 20+ minutes; vented boxes)
- ☐ Staff trained on the QR ask and on Lab Pass redemption
- ☐ Toast throttle and quote times set for creator-post spikes
- ☐ Ingredient buffer for launch week (creator posts can double demand for 2–3 days)

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 2

12. STILL UNVERIFIED

- Whether Wing Boys has its own Facebook page (Facebook search needs a login)
- The relationship between the Wing Boys owner and the In-N-Out Mini Mart chain owners
- Whether Toast connects to Instagram's Order Food button for his account
- Creator rates (KC Discover lists a promo line; prices unknown)
- Liquor-by-the-drink licensing for the shot
- Industry statistics: vendor surveys (Toast, MGH, SMS vendors), used as direction, not as guarantees

1. HIS HOURS VS. EVERYONE AROUND HIM (VERIFIED OCT 8–9)

BUSINESS	HOURS	WEEKLY HOURS
Wing Boys / Wing-Nerds (Toast)	Tue–Sat 11 AM–8 PM · closed Sun & Mon	45
↳ on DoorDash	ordering cut off at 7:40 PM	(loses the last 20 minutes of the dinner rush)
The market he's inside (In-n-Out Market & Kitchen)	Sun–Thu 9 AM–11 PM · Fri–Sat 9 AM–12 AM	105
Go Chicken Go (5101 Troost)	Sun 11–11 · Mon–Thu 10–11 · Fri–Sat 10 AM–1 AM	~92
Wings 'n Things Express (5800 Troost)	Mon–Sat 11 AM–7 PM · closed Sun	48

His kitchen is open 45 of the 105 hours its own building is open. The doors are open, the lights are on and people are walking in for another 60 hours a week while the fryer is off.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 3

2. WHERE THE DEMAND ACTUALLY IS (GOOGLE "POPULAR TIMES")

Google's Popular times shows each place's foot traffic hour by hour (100 = that place's busiest hour of the week).

■ A. HIS OWN BUILDING: THE MARKET AT 5550 TROOST

DAY	PEAK HOURS	WHAT IT MEANS
Sunday	8–9 PM = 90%, 10 PM = 72%	Sunday night is one of the building's busiest windows; the kitchen is closed all day
Monday	lunch (12 PM = 77%)	Closed
Tuesday	builds to 59% at 10 PM	After 8 PM: closed
Wednesday	10 PM = 81%, 7–9 PM 68–72%	After 8 PM: closed
Thursday	5–7 PM 86–90%, 9 PM 81%	After 8 PM: closed
Friday	7 PM = 100% (busiest hour of the week), 8–10 PM = 95%, 11 PM = 81%	The building's biggest crowd arrives just as the kitchen closes
Saturday	6 PM–11 PM, 54–68%	After 8 PM: closed

Result: 54% of the building's weekly foot traffic happens while the kitchen is closed. That breaks down as 21% on Tue–Sat after 8 PM, 13% on Sundays and 13% on Mondays.

■ B. CHICKEN DEMAND ON TROOST: GO CHICKEN GO (OPEN LATE, 4,291 GOOGLE REVIEWS)

Using its traffic curve as the demand pattern for chicken on this street:

WINDOW HE'S CLOSED	SHARE OF A WEEK'S CHICKEN DEMAND	EQUAL TO THIS MUCH ON TOP OF HIS CURRENT BUSINESS
Tue–Thu 8–11 PM	7.9%	+14%
Fri–Sat 8 PM–1 AM	11.6%	+20%
Sunday	10.0%	+18%
Monday	10.9%	+19%
Tue–Sat 10–11 AM	2.6%	+5%
All closed hours	43%	+76%

Wings 'n Things closes at 7 PM and is shut Sundays. After 7 PM, the nearest wing shop is closed. On Troost, Go Chicken Go has the evening and Sunday chicken business largely to itself.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 3

3. HOW MUCH BUSINESS IS MISSED (GROSS SALES, ESTIMATE)

Capture = how much of that evening and weekend demand he'd realistically win in new hours (50% = cautious, 75% = strong). Average ticket $20.

HIS CURRENT VOLUME	CAPTURE 50%	CAPTURE 75%
25 orders/day (125/wk)	+47 orders/wk · ≈ $49K/yr	+71 orders/wk · ≈ $74K/yr
35 orders/day (175/wk)	+66 orders/wk · ≈ $69K/yr	+100 orders/wk · ≈ $103K/yr
45 orders/day (225/wk)	+85 orders/wk · ≈ $89K/yr	+128 orders/wk · ≈ $133K/yr

Answer: the current hours likely leave roughly 50K–130K a year in gross sales on the table. About half of it is Sunday + Monday, about a quarter is Friday–Saturday nights, and about a fifth is Tuesday–Thursday evenings (shares of the closed-hours demand: 49% / 27% / 18%, the rest is the 10–11 AM hour).

But gross sales aren't profit. New hours cost wages, and late-night orders lean toward delivery (commission). Section 4 runs the profit math.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 3

4. THE GHOST-KITCHEN OPTION: AFTER THE COUNTER CLOSES, KEEP THE KITCHEN RUNNING

■ WHAT "GHOST MODE" MEANS HERE

At 8 PM the counter closes and the kitchen stays on with one cook, taking only:

- DoorDash / Uber Eats delivery
- Toast online orders for pickup (including a QR "order here" sign at the counter, so market customers can still buy)

It only works while the market is open (the kitchen is inside it): Tue–Thu until 11 PM, Fri–Sat until midnight.

■ UNIT ECONOMICS (ESTIMATES; REPLACE WITH REAL NUMBERS)

- Direct order: 20 – 313.20 kept
- DoorDash order: his DoorDash prices are about 20% higher (24), minus 2511.80 kept
- After-hours mix (60% app / 40% direct) = $12.36 per order
- One cook at about $20/hr fully loaded → break-even = 1.6 orders an hour. Two staff → 3.2 an hour.

■ PROFIT BY WINDOW (WEEKLY, AFTER THE COOK'S WAGES)

WINDOW	25/DAY BASE	35/DAY BASE	45/DAY BASE
Fri–Sat 8 PM–12 AM, ghost (8 h)	–17to* 54	+40to+140	+97to+225
Tue–Thu 8–11 PM, ghost (9 h)	–72to–18	–29to+47	+14to+111
Sunday 12–6 PM, ghost (6 h)	–47to–11	–18to+32	+11to+76
Monday 4–9 PM, ghost (5 h)	–40to–10	–16to+26	+8to+62
Sunday 11–7, fully staffed	–227to–180	–190to–125	–153to–69
Monday 11–8, fully staffed	–243to–185	–197to–115	–150to–45

■ WHAT THE NUMBERS SAY

1. Opening Sunday and Monday with a full crew loses money at any volume we modeled. Don't do it.
2. Friday–Saturday night ghost mode is the clear winner. It's profitable in 5 of 6 scenarios, it lines up with the building's busiest hours (Friday 7–10 PM at 95–100%), and it's when the nearest wing competitor is closed.
3. Tuesday–Thursday nights and short Sunday/Monday shifts only pay once base volume is about 35+ orders a day and customers know he's open late. So these come after the Google listing and marketing are working.
4. Sunday's real opportunity is football, which this traffic curve doesn't capture. DoorDash reports championship Sunday as its #1 day of the year for wing orders, at least about 25% above any other day

(DoorDash data via ABC17). Pre-ordered game-day trays ($60–150 a tray, cooked in one batch) beat walk-up hours. One tray order is worth roughly 3–7 regular tickets, cooked on a schedule.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 3

5. SHOULD IT BE A SEPARATE "GHOST BRAND"? NOT YET.

There are two different things people call a ghost kitchen:

OPTION	WHAT IT IS	VERDICT
A. "Ghost mode" under the same brand	Wing-Nerds' own DoorDash/Uber/Toast listings stay open later, delivery and online only	✓ Do this first. Same reviews, same name, same menu, no new rules
B. A separate virtual brand (e.g., a late-night concept) as a second app listing	A new storefront on DoorDash/Uber from the same kitchen	⚠ Later, maybe

Platform rules for a separate brand (B):

- DoorDash: at least 50% of main menu items must differ from every other menu at the same address; renaming the same items "is not considered differentiated." Lifetime rating ≥ 4.0 , cancellations $< 5\%$, at least 3 orders a week, licensed commercial kitchen (DoorDash virtual brand requirements).
- Uber Eats: menu about 50–60% different, photos required, rating floor 4.3, cancellations $\leq 5\%$. In 2023 it removed about 5,000 copycat virtual brands (Restaurant Dive, The Takeout).
- Industry track record: the 2020–2023 virtual-brand boom largely collapsed. Brands with no identity, food that didn't travel, and platform crackdowns killed most of them. The lesson most often drawn: a virtual brand works only as an add-on to a real kitchen that already performs (Wisk analysis, Chowhound).

So: a "Wing-Nerds After Dark" listing with the same wings and sliders would be rejected or delisted. If Option A proves late-night demand, a later Option B needs a genuinely different menu built from the same ingredients. For example: loaded fry bowls, wing mac bowls, chicken-and-waffle sliders, tender wraps. Run it only after 8 weeks of ghost mode holding ≥ 2 orders an hour and ratings ≥ 4.5 .

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 3

6. RECOMMENDATION AND ROLLOUT

STEP	WHEN	ACTION	COST
0. Free fix	This week	Move the DoorDash cutoff from 7:40 PM to 8:00 PM (and match Toast). Friday's busiest hour in the building is 7 PM	$0
1. Prerequisites	Before any late shift	Market owner OK for after-hours kitchen use · health permit hours · late-night safety plan (cash-light, lock-up, two-person close or camera) · pickup shelf for Dashers · Google profile " Delivery " and " Online ordering " hours (Google supports separate hour types under "More hours")	Low
2. Pilot: Fri-Sat ghost mode 8 PM-12 AM	Weeks 1-4 after the Google listing is live	1 cook; DoorDash + Uber + Toast online/QR; QR "order here after 8" sign at the counter; post "Late Lab is open" every Fri/Sat at 7:30 PM	~$160/wk in wages
3. Sunday game-day trays	Every Chiefs Sunday	Pre-orders only (order by Saturday 6 PM); 1-2 staff for a 3-4 hour cook-and-pickup block	Wages for the block only
4. Expand if the pilot passes	After 4 weeks	Add Tue-Thu 8-11 PM ghost, then test Monday 4-9 PM
5. Separate virtual brand	Earliest month 3	Only with a $\geq 50\%$ different menu and pilot metrics met

PILOT SCORECARD (DECIDE AFTER 4 WEEKS)

METRIC	KEEP GOING	STOP OR CHANGE
Orders per late hour	≥ 1.6 (break-even); ≥ 2.5 = expand	< 1.6 after 4 promoted weeks
DoorDash/Uber rating on late orders	≥ 4.5	< 4.3 (Uber's floor for virtual brands)
Cancellations / wrong orders	$< 3\%$	$> 5\%$
Delivery time (order → out the door)	≤ 15 min	> 25 min
Direct (Toast) share of late orders	rising	falling: push the QR sign and SMS more

// FLAVOR LAB • PART 3

7. CAVEATS (BE STRAIGHT WITH THE CLIENT)

- Popular times measures foot traffic, not orders. The market's late-night traffic includes people buying other things; Go Chicken Go is a much bigger, older brand. We use them as the shape of demand, not the size.
- Volume and wages are assumptions. His Toast hourly sales report plus actual payroll replace every estimate here.
- New hours need awareness. Late-night demand won't show up until Google, Instagram and the apps say he's open. The capture rates assume the listings in Parts 2, 4 and 5 are live.
- Go Chicken Go's 1 AM hour wasn't captured, so Friday–Saturday late-night demand is slightly understated.
- Sunday numbers exclude football spikes (game-day trays are modeled separately as an upside).

1. THE CORE TRUTH

Marketing is a multiplier, not a fix. It multiplies whatever the kitchen already is. Consistent food, fast pickup, and open when people come → growth compounds. Inconsistent, slow, or closed when people come → the campaign just buys bad reviews faster.

Every successful local food launch has the same three layers working at once:

LAYER	QUESTION	CURRENT STATE
1. Findable	Can a hungry person nearby find you, in the map app they use, at the moment they're deciding?	✗ Not on Google, Apple, Bing or Yelp
2. Choosable	When they see you next to 3 competitors, do the photos, rating, review count, price and open hours make you the pick?	⚠ Strong creator content, but it isn't attached to any listing
3. Repeatable	Does the first order turn into a second? Does the kitchen deliver the same experience on a busy Friday?	? Unknown. No repeat or ticket-time data seen yet

Most local campaigns fail by investing in layer 2 (creative) while layers 1 and 3 are broken. Early campaign concepts for Wing-Nerds did exactly that: beautiful ads, no listing, no operations check.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 4

2. PRE-MORTEM: HOW THIS FAILS (RANKED)

Imagine it's April 2027 and the campaign failed. The likeliest reasons:

#	FAILURE	LIKELIHOOD	DAMAGE	EARLY WARNING	PREVENTION
F1	The Google profile never verifies, or gets suspended. It sits inside a liquor store, shares its phone, has no sign, and the profile gets edited 5 times in a week.	High	Fatal: layer 1 never exists	"Verification unavailable" or a request for more info; listing not showing after 7 days	Own phone line, permanent signage, kitchen-only hours, name exactly matching the sign. Proof folder ready before applying: business license, health permit and Toast receipt in the business name, plus a written sublease or agreement with the market showing a separate space (Whitespark on co-located eligibility). Space out big edits. Practitioners report flags when name, address, phone, category and hours all change in one week (SEJ).
F2	Demand outruns the kitchen. A creator post plus the new map listing spikes orders; the "15–20 min pickup" becomes 45; orders come out wrong.	Med–High	Severe: the rating is fragile (see §4)	Ticket times >25 min at peak; remakes/refunds rising; "took forever" in reviews	Load-test before amplifying: one controlled push (creator repost) and measure ticket time. Use Toast's throttle and quote-time settings. Cap promos to off-peak. Never run paid ads and a creator drop in the same week.
F3	The rebrand orphans the audience. Customers search "Wing Boys," find a new name, assume it closed. Creators keep tagging the old handle.	Med	High: wipes out 3 years of word of mouth	Branded searches drop; IG reach drops; "is Wing Boys closed?" comments	Rename by renaming accounts, not creating new ones (IG handle change keeps followers; Toast/DoorDash rename keeps reviews). Use "Wing-Nerds (formerly Wing Boys)" for 6+ months if the LLC owns the name . File the fictitious name "Wing-Nerds" under WING BOYS LLC so name and legal entity connect.
F4	The promise doesn't match the product. AI-perfect premium imagery, a "Flavor Lab" story, a Don Julio shot that isn't legally served → customers feel misled.	Med	High: review content turns negative	Reviews mentioning "not like the pictures" or "no shot"	Real photos only in public. Ads show the exact box customers receive. No alcohol in listings or ads until the license is confirmed.

#	FAILURE	LIKELIHOOD	DAMAGE	EARLY WARNING	PREVENTION
F5	A legal letter forces a mid-campaign rename. Liquor-brand item names, "Adult Happy Meal," Casamigos seasoning.	Low-Med	Med: wasted print, signage, menu boards	A cease-and-desist	Rename menu items before printing anything or launching the Google listing (the menu is part of the listing).
F6	Nobody owns the daily work. The marketing partner sets it up; by week 6 nobody replies to reviews or posts; the listing goes stale.	High	Slow death	Review replies lag more than 3 days; no new photos in 2 weeks	$6 operating rhythm: a named person, 15 minutes a day, written into a staff checklist.
F7	Vanity metrics. Likes up, orders flat. The client can't see ROI and cancels.	High	Ends the engagement	Only engagement metrics in reports	Lock a 4-week baseline from Toast before launch (orders/day, channel mix, average ticket, repeat rate). Report orders and direct-order share weekly.
F8	Open hours don't match demand. The listing drives searches at 8:30 PM and on Sundays (game day), but the kitchen is closed.	Med	Med: Google shows "Closed," clicks go to Wings 'n Things	Google performance data shows searches during closed hours	Use Google's "popular times" and search-timing data after 30 days to make the case for Sunday or later hours. The market already stays open until 11 PM.
F9	Fighting the wrong battle. Budget spent trying to rank for "best wings KC" against The Peanut (1,239 reviews).	Med	Wasted 6 months	No movement on head terms after 60 days	$3: win the radius and the niche first.
F10	Growth comes through DoorDash. Volume rises but margin doesn't (prices are about 20% higher on DoorDash, plus fees).	Med	Low on revenue, high on profit	DoorDash share of orders rising	Every Google, Instagram and website button points to Toast direct / Order with Google . DoorDash is for delivery only. Track direct order share weekly.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 4

3. THE PHYSICS OF LOCAL RANKING: WHY THE PLAN IS SHAPED THIS WAY

Google says local results rank on three things: relevance, distance, prominence. Practitioner surveys still put the Google profile itself as the top local-pack factor (Whitespark Local Search Ranking Factors). Here's what each means for this specific shop:

Distance can't be changed. Map-pack wins happen mostly within about 1 mile. Inside that radius: Wings 'n Things (0.2 mi, 645 reviews), Gaels (about 0.1 mi, 672), Go-Chicken-Go (0.6 mi), The Peanut (1.0 mi, 1,239). There are also UMKC and Rockhurst within walking distance, a captive daytime crowd.

Prominence is the gap, and it closes slowly. At a realistic 6–10 new Google reviews a week, matching Wings 'n Things' 645 takes over a year. (This is an estimate from the order-volume scenarios times a typical ask-at-pickup conversion rate; replace it with real data after 30 days.) So don't fight head-on for "chicken wings."

Relevance is where a newcomer wins fast. Google matches a search to categories, menu items, and the words customers use in reviews. The play:

- Primary category: Chicken wings restaurant. Required, even though it's crowded.
- Secondary categories to own uncontested niches: Hamburger restaurant (for sliders; nearest slider specialist Smalls is in the suburbs), Hot dog restaurant.
- Steer the words in reviews: the pickup ask is "Tell KC which slider you got." Reviews that mention "sliders," "Adult Meal Deal," and "near UMKC" make Google show those words under the listing, and those snippets get clicks.
- Menu and products in the profile: every item named, priced and photographed. Item names are searchable.
- Target queries in order: Adult Meal Deal KC (own it now) → sliders near me / sliders Troost (weeks) → wings near UMKC / Rockhurst (1–3 months) → wings near me within 1 mile (3–6 months) → best wings KC (6–12 months, earned through press and listicles, not the map).

AI search is the same game, decided earlier. ChatGPT, Google AI answers and Perplexity build "where to get wings in KC" answers from Google, Bing, Yelp, Tripadvisor, Reddit and press. Being absent from all of them means the shop is never mentioned. The listings in Part 5 fix this for free.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 4

4. THE MATH THAT SHOULD SCARE EVERYONE (AND HOW TO USE IT)

The DoorDash rating is fragile. It's 4.8 on about 10 ratings. One 1-star review takes it to 4.45: $(4.8 \times 10 + 1) \div 11$. Two takes it to about 4.17. Diners filter hard by stars. BrightLocal research reports a growing share only consider 4.5★+ businesses and weigh recent reviews most heavily; treat the exact figures as secondary and verify them (BrightLocal). So the first 50 Google reviews should come from the existing loyal regulars, not from a cold traffic spike. Ask regulars in week 1, then amplify.

Review volume follows order volume. If the shop does about 35 orders a day, 5 days a week, and 3–5% of customers leave a review when asked in person, that's about 5–9 reviews a week. Turning that into 15+ a week needs more orders, not more asking. These numbers are an illustrative model; replace them with Toast data.

Direct orders are worth more. The same Adult Meal Deal is $24.99 direct on Toast vs $29.99 on DoorDash. The customer pays less direct, and the shop skips marketplace commission. Moving 20 orders a week from DoorDash to direct is a real margin gain with no new customers (the exact amount depends on the DoorDash contract, which we haven't seen).

Repeat rate is the real growth engine. A wing shop lives on regulars. If 30% of first-time customers come back within 30 days vs 15%, the same marketing spend produces roughly double the long-run orders. That's why the SMS "Join the Lab" list and loyalty matter more than any single ad.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 4

5. GATES: DON'T SPEND ON STAGE N+1 UNTIL STAGE N IS GREEN

GATE	MUST BE TRUE	UNLOCKS
G0: Truth	Name ownership confirmed (the LLC link to Keith Murrell) · "Wing-Nerds" fictitious name filed · menu renamed off liquor brands and "Happy Meal" · alcohol answer known · kitchen hours set · own phone line · signage up · proof folder ready	Listing applications
G1: Findable	Google profile verified · Apple, Bing, Yelp live · consistent name, address, phone and hours everywhere · Toast Order-with-Google showing on the profile	Review drive
G2: Ready	4-week Toast baseline captured · peak ticket time $\leq$ 20 min · real photo shoot done · first 25 Google reviews from regulars	Creator reposts, press pitch
G3: Proven	4 weeks with new reviews $\geq$ 5/week, rating $\geq$ 4.6, direct order share rising, no ticket-time blowups after a creator push	Paid ads, billboard, store screens (\$15K refresh)
G4: Scale	Repeat rate measured and improving · catering live	Second campaign, merch, expansion

Early concepts jumped straight to G4-level spend (billboards, a $15K store refresh) with G0 not even started. The gates are the biggest single improvement to the plan.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 4

6. OPERATING RHYTHM: WHO DOES WHAT (FAILURE F6 LIVES HERE)

WHEN	WHO	TASK	TIME
Every shift	Counter staff	Point to the QR: "Tell KC which slider you got." Snap 1 photo of a great-looking order.	0 extra minutes
Daily	Owner (or named staff)	Reply to every new review (Google, Yelp, DoorDash). Post 1 IG/TikTok story.	15 min
Weekly (Mon)	Marketing partner	Google post (offer or new item) · upload 3+ real photos · scoreboard ($7) to the owner · check hours and menu are accurate everywhere	1 hr
Monthly	Marketing partner + owner	Rank log re-run (Part 1 §11) · review the gates · pick next month's 1 creator collab and 1 "experiment" flavor	1 hr

Rules: reply to negative reviews within 24 hours, calmly, and offer to make it right offline. Never ask only happy customers to review; gating reviews by sentiment and paying for positive reviews are illegal under the FTC Consumer Review Rule, with penalties up to about $53K per violation (FTC, Troutman summary). Ask everyone.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 4

7. SCOREBOARD: LEADING INDICATORS WITH RED-LINE TRIGGERS

METRIC (SOURCE)	BASELINE	● GREEN	● RED → ACTION
New Google reviews/week (profile)	0	≥ 6	< 3 for 2 weeks → retrain the ask; check the QR is visible
Avg rating, last 30 days	—	≥ 4.6	< 4.4 → pause all amplification , fix operations first
Profile actions/week: calls + directions + order clicks (profile performance)	0	rising week over week	flat for 4 weeks → photos, categories, products audit
Direct order share (Toast vs DoorDash)	measure in G2	rising	falling → move all CTAs to Toast, add a "direct order" perk
Peak ticket time (Toast)	measure	≤ 20 min	> 25 min → throttle quote times, no promos that week
30-day repeat rate (Toast guest data)	measure	rising	falling → loyalty/SMS offer for second visit
Order errors / refunds % (Toast + DoorDash)	measure	< 2%	> 4% → stop promos, fix the line
Branded searches "Wing NERDS" (Google Search Console once the site is live)	~0	rising monthly	flat at 90 days → rename isn't landing; push "formerly Wing Boys" harder

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 4

8. WHERE THE REAL EDGE IS (WHAT COMPETITORS CAN'T COPY)

1. A creator culture that already works. Hood Dude, The Epitome KC, KC Discover, KansasCityMack, Black Feast Week. Competitors with 600+ reviews don't have this momentum. The missing piece is capture: every creator post should point to the Maps pin and Toast. With permission, their videos become the Google profile photos and the site's hero video.
2. "Home of the Adult Meal Deal." A named, repeatable, ownable offer that creators already quote word for word. Own the query, own the box, and keep the name; just rename the liquor pieces inside it.
3. Community equity. It's on Black-owned business roundups (City Market Juneteenth, KC Star) and in KCUR's Hood Dude coverage. Google's Black-owned attribute, Black-owned directories, and the KC Blerds community fit a "Nerds" brand. Displaying the attribute is entirely the owner's choice.
4. The campus next door. UMKC and Rockhurst are a daytime and late-afternoon crowd competitors don't target. Student and staff deals, a catering trays page, and campus org partnerships.
5. Uncle Keith as the face. A real person with a birthday promo, lemonade and cookies is more defensible than any mascot. Put him in the profile photos and the About story (his call).

STEP 0: SETTLE THESE 8 ITEMS BEFORE ANYTHING GOES LIVE (START WITH A 15-MINUTE CALL WITH THE OWNER)

#	QUESTION	WHY IT BLOCKS
1	Who owns the "Wing Boys" name, the @wingboys_kc Instagram, and the Toast/DoorDash/Uber merchant accounts? Facebook calls Troost "Wing Boys" third location.	If another operator owns them, the client could lose the 1,925 followers, the DoorDash reviews and the Toast history when they split. That also decides whether we can write "formerly Wing Boys."
2	Exact name on the sign at the location: "Wing-Nerds"? "Wing-Nerds Flavor Lab"?	Google requires the listing name to match real-world signage. Adding keywords gets the listing suspended.
3	Is Wing-Nerds signage up inside or outside?	Google verification is usually a video showing signage, the business operating, and proof of management. No sign means no verification.
4	Kitchen hours (separate from the market)	Three conflicting sets of hours are live right now.
5	A phone number that rings the kitchen, not the market	Today (816) 895-3498 is the market's number on Google. Sharing it risks Google merging the two listings or flagging a duplicate. Get a dedicated line; a cheap second line or a Toast/VoIP number is fine.
6	File "Wing-Nerds" as a fictitious name (DBA) under WING BOYS LLC with the Missouri SOS. The LLC exists (LC014370692, agent Keith Murrell, Active); "Wing Nerds" has no filing as of Oct 8.	Links the new name to the legal entity, which proves eligibility to Google and protects the name
7	Proof folder: business license, health permit, Toast receipt in the business name, written sublease or agreement with the market showing separate space	Google can ask for these when a business is inside another business
8	First 25 Google reviews come from regulars before any creator or ad push	The rating is fragile; see Part 4 §4

Our Adult Meal Deal puts a slider, six wings, fries, lemonade and a cookie in one box. Order ahead for pickup in about 15 to 20 minutes, get delivery through DoorDash or Uber Eats, or call us about wing and slider trays for offices, game days and parties. Join the Lab for first access to new flavor drops.

Add "Formerly Wing Boys." at the start only if Q1 confirms the client may use that name.

#	PLATFORM	LINK	NOTES
4a	Apple Business Connect	https://businessconnect.apple.com	Free. iPhone Maps and Siri. Use the 2a Apple ID or create one with the business email.
4b	Bing Places	https://www.bingplaces.com	"Import from Google Business Profile" after Step 3 verifies. Bing data also feeds ChatGPT and Copilot search.
4c	Yelp for Business	https://business.yelp.com	Create a new listing (none exists). Category: Chicken Wings, Burgers, Hot Dogs. Never ask for or pay for Yelp reviews; it's against their rules.
4d	Facebook Page	https://www.facebook.com/pages/create	Confirm first who controls the existing page that posted the hours (Q1). Then set the correct hours.
4e	Instagram	app → Edit profile	Name: "Wing-Nerds · Wings & Sliders KC". Bio: the short description. Link: wingnerds.com. Username change only after Q1 and Q2. Stop the mass-following (following is 2,225 vs 1,925 followers).

STEP 5: REVIEW ENGINE (START THE DAY GOOGLE VERIFIES)

1. In the Google Business Profile: "Ask for reviews" → copy the short link.
2. Make a QR code from that link. I'll build the printable card and box sticker as soon as the link exists.
3. Sticker on every box, card at the counter. Text: "Rate your formula ★ Scan & tell KC."
4. Reply to every review within 48 hours.
5. Never offer discounts or freebies in exchange for reviews. That's against Google's policy and against the FTC rule on consumer reviews.

// FLAVOR LAB • PART 5

BLIND SPOTS: WHAT EVERYONE ASSUMES IS FINE BUT ISN'T

1. Who owns the existing audience? The Instagram, the Toast history and the DoorDash reviews may belong to "Wing Boys," not to the person paying us. Find out before the rename.
2. Shared address and phone with the market. Google can treat the kitchen as a duplicate of "In-n-Out Market & Kitchen." The fix is its own phone number, its own signage and its own hours.
3. No sign means no listing. Verification needs visible signage. The window decal and an interior sign are now step one, not a nice-to-have.
4. AI search is a new front door. ChatGPT, Google AI Overviews and Perplexity pull "best wings in KC" from Google Maps, Bing, Yelp, Tripadvisor and Reddit. The shop is absent from all of them, so AI assistants never recommend it. Steps 3–4 fix this for free.
5. Apple Maps is the default on iPhones. Most local food searches start in a phone's map app. The address currently shows only "Zap In N Out."
6. The liquor angle limits marketing. "Don Julio shot" and the liquor-brand item names restrict Google/Meta ads (21+ targeting), can draw trademark letters, and Google reviewers may tag the business as a bar. Keep listings food-first.
7. The creator content is unused. There are 8+ creator videos (Hood Dude, The Epitome KC, KC Discover, KansasCityMack). With permission they become the best Google photos, website videos and ads, at no cost.
8. The market is a partner. "In-n-Out Market & Kitchen" has 4.8★ (22 reviews) on Google and its own Instagram (@in_n_out_minimart_kcmo). Ask the market to post "Wing-Nerds kitchen inside" photos and link to the profile.
9. Hours limit the story. Closed Sunday and Monday means no Chiefs-Sunday traffic. If the market is open until 11 PM daily, the kitchen may be leaving money on the table.

WEBSITE & PLATFORM BLUEPRINT

Concept image • AI-generated

THE WEBSITE

Left: the working homepage prototype already built (concept food photos). Right: the owned menu & pickup page that every bio links to.

// FLAVOR LAB • PART 6

1. WHAT THE SITE HAS TO DO (OR IT'S NOT WORTH BUILDING)

JOB	KPI	HOW
1. Move orders to Toast direct (commission-free, about 20% cheaper for the customer than DoorDash)	% of orders via Toast vs DoorDash	Every CTA = "Order Pickup" → Toast. DoorDash is secondary ("Delivery").
2. Capture repeat customers	SMS/email list size, repeat rate	"Join the Lab" signup → Toast Loyalty + Toast Marketing (SMS/email).
3. Sell catering / Lab Kits	Catering leads per month, average catering ticket	Dedicated catering page with a quote form → owner's phone + email.
4. Carry the rename	Branded search impressions for "Wing Nerds" vs "Wing Boys"	"Formerly Wing Boys" on every page + <code>alternateName</code> in schema.
5. Be the premium face of the brand	Time on site, IG click-through	Flavor Lab design system, real photography.

// FLAVOR LAB • PART 6

2. DOMAIN & HANDLES: DO THIS WEEK

- Register: `wingnerds.com` (primary) + `wingnerdskc.com` + `wing-nerds.com` (both redirect to primary). All three showed "No match" in WHOIS on 2026-10-08, so they appear available. Register them in the client's name and on the client's account, not the agency's.
- Claim: @wingnerds or @wingnerdskc on Instagram (rename the existing @wingboys_kc so followers carry over), TikTok (new), Facebook, Google Business Profile (rename the existing listing; don't create a new one).
- Email: `orders@` / `catering@wingnerds.com` through Google Workspace or Zoho.

4. TECH STACK: RECOMMENDATION AND ALTERNATIVES

Recommended: custom static site + Toast as the commerce/CRM backbone.

LAYER	PICK	WHY
Site	Astro or plain HTML/CSS (prototype is plain HTML), hosted on Cloudflare Pages or Netlify (free tier)	Fast, cheap, fully premium design control, nothing to hack.
Ordering	Toast Online Ordering (already live) via deep links; DoorDash as secondary link	Already running. Commission-free. Toast doesn't need replacing.
Loyalty + SMS/email	Toast Loyalty + Toast Marketing	Data stays tied to the POS and orders. Confirm the client's Toast plan includes these and get the cost from their Toast rep (unverified).
Catering form	Netlify Forms / Formspree → owner email + SMS	Free, no backend.
Gift cards	Toast Gift Cards	Native.
Analytics	GA4 + Meta Pixel + UTMs on every Toast/DoorDash link	Lets you prove the site moves orders.
Reviews	Google Business Profile review link on receipts + SMS after order	Builds the review count, which is currently thin.

Alternatives:

- Toast's built-in website builder: cheapest and fastest, but generic. Fails the "premium" goal. Fine as a stopgap only.
- Squarespace/Wix restaurant template: the client can edit it themselves, but it looks templated and has weaker performance.
- Webflow/Framer: premium look and client-editable, at about $20–40/mo. A good choice if the client wants to self-edit copy.
- Full custom app with its own ordering (Next.js + Stripe): not recommended. It duplicates Toast, adds PCI scope and maintenance, and has no upside at this volume.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 6

5. BRAND SYSTEM FOR WEB

- Colors are sampled from the supplied logo; confirm against the vector master when it arrives: `--char #0E0E0E` · `--ink #161616` · `--orange #F15A24` · `--lime #8CC63F` · `--cream #F2EBDD` · `--paper #FAF6EE`
- Type: condensed, bold display face echoing the logo's WING-NERDS lettering (prototype uses Oswald). Clean sans for body (Inter). A monospace "lab label" accent for formula numbers and specs (JetBrains Mono). That's the nerd layer.
- Graphic language: lab specimen labels, formula numbers, heat meters, grid-paper texture, the drip from the logo wings used as a section divider. Mascot = small recurring guide, not the hero.
- Photography rule: food is always the hero and always real. Show the actual packaging. Shoot straight from the kitchen: overhead, 45°, and low-angle billboard shots.
- Logo: the client needs a vector master (SVG/AI/EPS) from whoever designed the logo. The supplied file is a 1033px JPEG, which can't be used for signage. Also make a compact mark (the chicken head or "WN" in the oval) for favicon/avatar.

// FLAVOR LAB • PART 6

6. SEO / LOCAL

- Title: Wing-Nerds Flavor Lab | Wings & Sliders on Troost, Kansas City (formerly Wing Boys)
- JSON-LD `Restaurant` with `name`, `alternateName`: "Wing Boys", `address`, `geo`, `openingHoursSpecification`, `hasMenu`, `acceptsReservations`: false, `servesCuisine`. Already embedded in the prototype.
- Crawlable HTML menu (not a PDF or image). Every item gets a description, which Toast currently lacks.
- NAP identical everywhere: Wing-Nerds, 5550 Troost Avenue, Kansas City, MO 64110. Phone needs owner confirmation: (816) 895-3498 per the Toast directory (this is the market's number).
- Monthly logged-out search log for "wing nerds kansas city," "wings troost," "wings near UMKC," and "wing boys troost."

// FLAVOR LAB • PART 6

7. CONTENT NEEDED FROM THE CLIENT (BLOCKS THE BUILD)

1. Vector logo + mascot source files (or permission to redraw).
2. Final menu names, descriptions, ingredients, allergens, heat levels, prices. Decide on the liquor-name renames (for example Jack Daniels → Tennessee Smoke, Don Julio Dog → Agave Dog, Casamigos Strips → Lab Strips).
3. Liquor-license answer on the tequila shot.
4. Hours decision. Also note conflicting hours listings on Toast directory vs ordering page.
5. Owner story (2–3 paragraphs), photo of the owner/team.
6. Catering menu + minimums + lead time.
7. Admin access: Toast, Google Business Profile, Instagram, DoorDash merchant.
8. One-day real photo shoot (food + storefront + counter + team).

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 6

8. BUILD PLAN & EFFORT

PHASE	WHEN	DELIVERABLE
0. Foundation	Week 1	Domains, handles, GBP/Toast/DoorDash/IG rename, Toast menu cleanup (typos, descriptions), liquor-name decision
1. Shoot	Week 2	Real food + store photo day; replace all AI concepts
2. Site v1	Weeks 2–3	6 pages from the prototype, live on wingnerds.com, GA4/Pixel/UTMs, schema
3. Platform	Weeks 3–4	Toast Loyalty "Lab Members," SMS welcome flow, review-request flow, catering form
4. Content engine	Month 2+	Monthly "Experiment" drop, creator collabs (reviewer culture), TikTok launch, weekly GBP posts
5. Expansion	Month 3+	Merch/sauce, gift cards, store screens (the $15K refresh, now backed by data)

Rough running cost (client side, before marketing fees): domains about $40/yr. Hosting $0. Webflow is optional at about $20–40/mo. Google Workspace about $7/user/mo. Toast Loyalty/Marketing per their plan (unverified).

THE INSTAGRAM HE COULD HAVE

A complete profile concept: keyword name, bio with hours and address, Order/Directions/Call buttons, highlights, and a launch grid where every tile answers a customer question.

EVERY CHANNEL, SAME BRAND

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

MOCKUP

OPTIONAL LAUNCH ROW / COMPARISON

One wide logo across three posts?

It can work as a short launch moment: three connected covers, with useful carousel slides behind each. Post the right tile first, then the center, then the left. New posts and changes to pins can break the row; each tile also needs to make sense in someone's feed.

Recommended: keep the three useful pinned covers shown above. They share a visual system, answer three customer questions, and stay readable as individual posts.

Optional launch row: one wide logo across three posts

1. VERDICT

His profiles are a name tag, not a front door. The Instagram header says only "WING BOYS · 5550 Troost Ave KCMO Located inside IN-n-OUT." There are no hours, no phone, no ordering link, no buttons and no directions. The profile picture mixes both names ("THE WING · WING-BOYS · NERDS"). The feed is mostly other people's videos. A customer who sees a creator reel and taps through can't answer the four questions that turn interest into an order:

What is it? · Where exactly is it? · Is it open now? · How do I order?

That's the real problem behind "getting customers where they need to be." It costs nothing to fix and can be done this week.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 7

2. WHAT WE FOUND (EVIDENCE)

■ INSTAGRAM HEADER

ELEMENT	TODAY	PROBLEM
Username	@wingboys_kc	Old name; fine to keep until the rename (a username change keeps all followers)
Name field (searchable, 30 characters)	"WING BOYS"	Wastes the one searchable field; no "wings," "sliders" or "KC"
Category	none shown	Should read Chicken Wings Restaurant
Bio	"5550 Troost Ave KCMO Located inside IN-n-OUT"	No hours, no signature offer, no call to action
Link	none	No way to order from Instagram
Action buttons	none (only Follow / Message)	No Order, Directions or Call
Profile picture	White badge "THE WING · WING-BOYS · NERDS"	Mixes two names; the new brand is "Wing-Nerds"
Following	2,140 vs 1,926 followers	Looks like follow-for-follow; hurts credibility
Highlights	1 , titled "Highlights"	Cover reads "BEST WINGS IN KC," "HENNY TIME," "COGNAC CRUNCH," "DON JULIO DOG": liquor-brand names and an unprovable claim on the brand's own asset

■ GRID (12 MOST RECENT POSTS)

- Only 2 of 12 were made by Wing Boys. Eight are Hood Dude Food Reviews collabs, one is a comedian (@thecincomedy), one is Uncle Keith's personal account (@keith_murrell).
- Engagement: own posts got 23 likes (birthday promo, Sep 23, 2026) and 62 (Adult Meal Deal flyer, Sep 2025). Hood Dude collab reels got 185–214. The comedian reel got 654, but its caption never mentions Wing Boys, the address or how to order. That reach was wasted.
- Confirmed: "UNCLE KEITH TURNED 50 TODAY" was posted from both the Wing Boys account and @keith_murrell (Keith Kasino Murrell). Uncle Keith is Keith Murrell, the registered agent of WING BOYS LLC. The same caption thanks people for supporting "me, IN-n-OUT and Wing Nerds." Whether he's also involved in the In-N-Out Mini Mart chain is unverified.

■ TIKTOK CHECK (OCT 9, 2026)

He has no TikTok account of his own. I checked 18 handle variations: wingboys_kc, wingboyskc, wing_boys_kc, wingboys, wingboys816, wingboyskansascity, wingnerds, wingnerdskc, wingnerds_kc, wing_nerds, wingnerdsflavorlab, keith_murrell, keithmurrell, unclekeith, unclekeiths, unclekeithslemonade, in_n_out_minimart_kcmo, innoutmarketkc.

ACCOUNT	WHAT IT IS	RELEVANCE
@wingboys	0 videos, 5 followers, nickname "xx", created April 3, 2022 , 8 days before WING BOYS LLC was filed (April 11, 2022)	Possibly his reserved handle. UNVERIFIED; ask him
@keithmurrell	0 videos, 3 followers, created 2015	Unknown; ask
@unclekeith	"Uncle amazing," unrelated person	Not his
@in_n_out_minimart_kcmo	The market's TikTok: 7 videos, 8 followers, 89 likes	The host market, not the kitchen
@wingnerds / @wingnerdskc	Not found, so they appear available	Claim today

His TikTok presence today comes only from other creators:

CREATOR	TIKTOK FOLLOWERS	WING BOYS CONTENT
Hood Dude Food Reviews (@epitomekc)	73.2K (1.1M likes)	Several Wing Boys videos ("HOOD DUDE reporting live at Wing Boys," "WING BOYS CHECK-IN," "best sliders in Kansas City")
@thecincomedy	814.7K (17.7M likes)	Featured Wing Boys on Instagram (654 likes) without naming the place; whether it was also posted on TikTok is unverified
KC Discover	65.3K	Promo partner (Facebook 222K)
Diskcover816	23K	Posted Wing Boys (with the market's hours)
becomingwithzee, toastedteon and others	small	"📍 Wing Boys – 5550 Troost Ave" posts

Problems this creates:

1. There's nothing to tag or follow. Hood Dude's videos tag @Marquann Turrentine (who that is: unverified), not a Wing Boys account, so viewers have nowhere to go.
2. The name collides with other brands. The #wingboy tag mixes his videos with Wingboyzzz (a different wing brand with its own TikTok), Wingboy Sydney, Wing Boys Tampa and Wing Boyz. "Wing Boys" can't be owned on TikTok; "Wing-Nerds" can. Another reason to finish the rename.
3. TikTok's own search pages already pull up his videos for queries like "Americas best wings flavor review Kansas City," "Kansas City live guy" and "restaurants that take EBT in Kansas City." The demand is there and nothing captures it.

Fix: claim @wingnerdskc now (Business account), using the TikTok bio in §6. Ask Hood Dude and the other creators to tag it on new posts and add it to old captions, and repost their videos with permission. Then follow the posting plan in Part 2 §6.

■ CAPTIONS: WHAT HELPS AND WHAT HURTS

FOUND IN CAPTIONS	EFFECT
"📍 5550 Troost Ave, KCMO" (Hood Dude)	✓ Good, but no hours or ordering info
"Home of the Adult Meal Deal"	✓ Keep; it's his signature phrase
"Home of the ADULT HAPPY MEAL " (Hood Dude, Sep 3)	✗ "Happy Meal" is a McDonald's trademark; ask creators to use "Adult Meal Deal"
" LET'S GET HIGH. LET'S GET DRUNK. LET'S EAT." (birthday post)	✗ Meta won't let a post like this be boosted as an ad; it turns off office catering buyers and families; avoid in brand posts
"Pull up to WING NERDS " on an account named WING BOYS	! Fine during the rename, but only once the profile explains it ("Formerly Wing Boys")
No hours, no link, no "order here" in any caption	✗ Every post ends in a dead end

■ THE OTHER "HEADERS" CUSTOMERS SEE

PLATFORM	WHAT THE HEADER SAYS TODAY	PROBLEM
DoorDash	"Wing Boys (In-n-Out Market & Kitchen) - 5550 Troost Ave" · category Burgers · "Wings & sliders with whiskey-inspired flavors" · 1 public review	Wrong category (wings searchers never see him); old name; ordering stops at 7:40 PM
Uber Eats	"Wing Boys - Troost" · no ratings	Old name; no rating
Toast online ordering	"Wing Boys - Troost" · description: " Come in and enjoy! "	No description, no pickup instructions, menu typos
Google / Apple / Bing / Yelp	No listing	Google shows the address as a liquor store
Facebook / TikTok / YouTube	No account found (TikTok: 18 handles checked; see above)	His creator buzz on Facebook (KC Discover 222K, Diskcover816 18K) has nowhere to land

3. THE CUSTOMER PATH: WHERE PEOPLE GET LOST

A typical new customer's path, and the break at each step:

STEP	WHAT THE CUSTOMER DOES	WHAT HAPPENS TODAY	FIX
1. Sees it	Watches a Hood Dude reel	✓ Works; good reach	Keep the creators
2. Checks it out	Taps @wingboys_kc	✗ No hours, menu, link or buttons	New bio, link, buttons, highlights ($4)
3. Looks it up	Searches Google Maps for "Wing Boys"	✗ Gets Wings 'n Things and a liquor store	Google Business Profile (Part 5)
4. Decides when	"Are they open now?"	✗ Four different sets of hours online	One set of hours everywhere
5. Orders	Wants to order ahead	✗ No link anywhere on Instagram	Toast Order button + link
6. Arrives	Walks into a convenience/liquor store	✗ No sign telling them where the kitchen is	Wayfinding kit ($7)
7. Comes back	Liked it	✗ No way to stay in touch	"Join the Lab" text list (Part 2)

Every break between step 2 and step 6 is a profile or signage fix. None needs a budget.

- ✖ Name field "WING BOYS": no searchable keyword (wings, sliders, KC)
- ✖ No hours, no phone, no order link, no action buttons
- ✖ One highlight, named "Highlights"; cover says "BEST WINGS IN KC," "HENNY TIME," "DON JULIO DOG"
- ✖ 10 of 12 recent posts are other people's collabs; own posts get 23-62 likes
- ✖ Logo reads "THE WING · WING-BOYS · NERDS," a mix of both names
- ✖ Follows 2,140 accounts: looks like follow-for-follow

Profile photo shown with the refreshed Fresh Paint logo; at avatar size the wide wing logo gets small. A compact mark (oval "WN" or the box chicken, once approved) reads better in a circle. Toast supports an Instagram Order button (set up in the Instagram app).

2. The Adult Meal Deal. Real food photo, what's inside, price, "Order in bio."
3. "How to find us." Walk-through from the Troost door to the counter, with hours on screen.

5. CREATOR COLLAB RULES (EVERY PARTNER POST MUST INCLUDE THESE)

The creators are the best thing he has. The fix is to make every collab carry the essentials. Send this as a one-page brief:

1. Tag the account (@wingboys_kc → @wingnerdskc) as a collaborator, and add the location tag.
2. Caption includes: address, hours, "order ahead: link in @wingnerdskc bio."
3. Say "Adult Meal Deal," not "Adult Happy Meal."
4. Paid or gifted posts get a "paid partnership" / #ad label (FTC).
5. Don't feature the tequila shot in paid posts until the license is confirmed.
6. Comedy and lifestyle creators (like @thecincomedy, 654 likes) must add the place to the caption. Otherwise the reach is lost.
7. Permission for Wing-Nerds to reuse the clip on Google, the website and ads.

Ask now: Hood Dude and the comedian to edit their captions on existing Wing Boys reels to add the address, hours and tag. Edits are free, and those reels are still being watched.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 7

6. EVERY OTHER HEADER (PASTE-READY)

PLATFORM	NAME	HEADER / DESCRIPTION	OTHER SETTINGS
DoorDash	Wing-Nerds (formerly Wing Boys)	"Home of the Adult Meal Deal. Wings, signature sliders, Uncle Keith's lemonade and cookies. Kitchen inside IN-n-OUT at 5550 Troost."	Category: Chicken Wings · ordering until 8:00 PM (not 7:40) · cover photo = real Adult Meal Deal · pickup instructions for Dashers: "Kitchen counter inside IN-n-OUT [where in the store]. Ask for Wing-Nerds."
Uber Eats	Wing-Nerds (formerly Wing Boys)	Same as DoorDash	Same photos, same hours
Toast online ordering	Wing-Nerds (formerly Wing Boys) – Troost	Replace "Come in and enjoy!" with: "Home of the Adult Meal Deal. Order ahead and pick up at our kitchen counter inside IN-n-OUT, 5550 Troost Ave. Ready in 15-20 minutes."	Fix typos ("TOMATOS," "Mozzarella Cheeses Sticks," "Crab Rangoon's"); item descriptions; one set of hours
Google Business Profile	Wing-Nerds (must match the sign)	Description in Part 5 (642/750 characters)	Category Chicken wings restaurant; Order button via Toast; photos of the entrance and counter
Facebook Page (new)	Wing-Nerds	Same as the Instagram bio + website + hours	Category Chicken Wings Place; Order Food button (Toast link)
TikTok (new)	@wingnerdskc		Business account; website link
YouTube (new)	@wingnerdskc	Same as TikTok	Shorts only
Snapchat (month 2)	wingnerdskc	Same as TikTok	Public Profile + Snap Map place
Apple / Bing / Yelp	Wing-Nerds	Same as the Google description	Same hours, phone, photos

Update (Oct 9): a clickable TikTok website link needs 1,000+ followers or a Registered Business Account.

Until then, point viewers to Instagram and post pickup directions. The Instagram Order food button is optional: confirm which partners and controls the owner's account actually offers first. Ready-to-paste alternates for every profile are in Part 9 §2.

One rule across all of them: same name, same address line ("inside IN-n-OUT, 5550 Troost Ave"), same hours, same phone, same photo of the Adult Meal Deal. Consistency is what Google trusts.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 7

7. WAYFINDING: GETTING PEOPLE PHYSICALLY TO THE COUNTER

A first-timer walks into what looks like a convenience/liquor store. Nothing tells them where the kitchen is, so some turn around. Fix it on both sides:

Physical

- Window or door decal facing Troost: "WING-NERDS · WINGS & SLIDERS · KITCHEN INSIDE →"
- Sign above the kitchen counter with the logo, so the counter can be spotted from the door
- Floor or wall arrows from the entrance to the counter if it isn't visible from the door
- Menu board with the Adult Meal Deal first and prices large
- QR at the counter for order-ahead, the review link and the text list (Part 2)

Digital

- Google Maps pin on the market entrance; photo of the entrance + counter as listing photos
- "Find Us" highlight and pinned post #3 (the walk-through)
- Pickup instructions on Toast and DoorDash: "Kitchen counter inside IN-n-OUT, [where in the store]. Say your name at the Wing-Nerds counter."
- Website "Visit" page with the same walk-through video and parking note

Staff: when anyone walks into the market looking lost, point them to the kitchen. A one-line market staff script, agreed with the market owner.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 7

8. CONTENT FIXES: START AND STOP

STOP	START
Posting only creators' collabs (10 of 12)	2–3 own posts a week: sauce toss, Uncle Keith, Lab Test (Part 2 §6)
Text-heavy flyers covering the food	Real food first; text only on the cover frame
"LET'S GET HIGH / DRUNK"	Grown-folks fun that's still ad-safe: "Clock out. Dig in."
"Adult Happy Meal," "Henny Time," "Don Julio Dog," "Casamigos"	"Adult Meal Deal," and the menu renames in Part 4
"BEST WINGS IN KC" on brand graphics	Let customers and creators say it; brand graphics say "Home of the Adult Meal Deal"
Captions with no hours or link	The standard footer on every post
Mixed logo (WING-BOYS / NERDS)	One logo: Wing-Nerds (with "formerly Wing Boys" in text during the rename)

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 7

4. PLATFORM CARDS: WHAT EACH ONE NEEDS

■ ● GOOGLE BUSINESS PROFILE

- Check monthly that the Apple pin sits on the market entrance.

■ ● BING PLACES

■ ● TOAST ONLINE ORDERING (FIX)

- Rename; replace "Come in and enjoy!" with the real description and pickup directions; fix typos; item descriptions and photos; one set of hours; menu items renamed off liquor brands; turn on the Instagram/Facebook profile Order buttons (Toast); confirm Order with Google once the profile exists.

■ ● DOORDASH (FIX)

- Name "Wing-Nerds (formerly Wing Boys)"; category Chicken Wings; ordering until 8:00 PM (not 7:40); real cover photo; item photos and descriptions; Dasher pickup instructions; review the commission plan (15/25/30%) against delivery volume (DoorDash pricing).

- Update (Oct 9): the unfollow target is a guide, not a rule (remove inactive/spam follows gradually); the Order Food button is optional until the owner confirms partner availability; TikTok's clickable link needs 1,000+ followers or a Registered Business Account. Launch posts, captions and the 14-day rhythm are in Part 9.
- Ongoing: 3–5 Reels a week (same video as TikTok), daily stories on open days.

1. The owner owns every account. Use the business email (on the domain) and a password manager.
2. Two-factor authentication on every account (Google, Meta, TikTok, Toast, DoorDash, Uber, domain registrar).
3. Marketing partner added as Manager / Admin / Collaborator role, never as owner.
4. Keep an account inventory sheet: platform · login email · owner · managers · date created · recovery phone.
(Passwords stay in the password manager, never in the sheet.)
5. Find out who controls @wingboys_kc, the Toast and DoorDash merchant accounts, and the empty TikTok @wingboys (created April 3, 2022, possibly his). Move them to the business email.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 8

LAUNCH KIT: FLAVOR CREW, COPY & COLLATERAL

LAUNCH ADS WITH THE FLAVOR CREW

Four launch-ad concepts built on the approved trio, at the feed (1080 × 1350) and story (1080 × 1920) sizes.

Engagement play: "Which one are you bringing to the table? Saucy · Crispy · Spicy." Fix before posting the graffiti version: the body copy collides with the flavor buttons and "GOT FLAVOR?" sits on the brown chicken's head.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 9

Menu & menu board	Corner placement beside "Find your flavor alter ego"
Merch	Tees, stickers, kids' cups (later, at the scale stage)
Staff look	The Crew's outfit is the real uniform: black tee, apron, yellow/lime frames

Rules: keep the food the hero in product ads (Crew as a supporting character); use the transparent trio file for placement; the official logo stays unchanged above or beside the Crew. Get a vector version before printing large.

3. LAUNCH ROW: THE FIRST NINE POSTS

Pin three: Meet Wing-Nerds · Adult Meal Deal · Find the Counter. Each pinned post must make sense alone. The three-tile logo row is optional (post right, center, then left); a mosaic breaks when pins move, so independent covers are the default.

4. THE 14-DAY LAUNCH RHYTHM

DAY	PRODUCE / PUBLISH
1	Confirm name, links, menu; rename carousel; pin "Meet Wing-Nerds"
2	Meal unboxing on Reels / TikTok / Shorts; pin the Meal Deal
3	Film and post the entrance-to-counter route; pin "Find the Counter"
4	Story: menu link + owner-confirmed hours; answer pickup questions
5	Sauce-toss video; flavor poll in Stories (Flavor Crew "pick your nerd")
6	Staff or uniform preview (labeled as planned until real)
7	Test every link, check inquiries and saves; batch next week's footage
8	Slider close-up; story menu reminder
9	Behind-the-toss video across three video channels
10	Story FAQ: where to enter, where to collect orders
11	Catering inquiry card; one LinkedIn operator post
12	Second real food video; reply to comments
13	Menu / pickup carousel; update the FAQ highlight
14	Review order clicks, inquiries, attributed orders; keep the two best formats

Paid promotion starts only when name, menu, links, counter directions and fulfillment all agree. First paid test: two creatives (meal unboxing, counter route) with a pickup call to action. Report clicks and orders, not reach.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 9

5. LOW-COST LOCAL COLLATERAL KIT

Four small pieces that make every pickup feel intentional, then show up in photos:

#	PIECE	WHAT IT IS	NOTES
01	Order seal + accuracy cue	Round sticker on the existing black bag or box; staff write name / sauce / heat / packed-by	Start with one design and one size
02	Sauce identity label	Small color dot or narrow label per sauce	Only after sauce names are renamed and approved; test grease and condensation
03	QR "Flavor Report" card	Insert in the Adult Meal or hand out at pickup: "Scan for the next flavor run. How did it hit?"	QR must go through an owner-controlled redirect; no printed reward until an offer is approved
04	Counter placard	Small rigid sign: logo, address/hours, ordering QR, one instruction ("Choose your flavor. Name your run.")	Same black/orange/lime lockup used in food photos

Cost anchors (planning, not quotes): Avery DIY labels $29 / 400 ≈ 7¢ each · printed circle labels $56 / 100 ≈ 56¢ each · first kit about $75–150.

Release check before print: verify the $1 upgrade price and wording on Toast · verify the strips count and price · owner confirms all prices and consolidated categories · owner confirms Adult Meal contents and the Don Julio arrangement · scan-test the QR and confirm the final destination (today it still opens the Wing Boys Toast page).

Sequence: prototype one sticker, one card, one placard → test on a real black bag, a cold lemonade cup and a pickup order → approve a short run → reuse the same art in social posts.

6. TEMPLATES THAT PREVENT OPERATIONAL GAPS

- Website / link-page buttons: Order Pickup · View Menu · Hours & Find Us · Catering Inquiry · Contact the Kitchen. Show the address, kitchen hours and counter route on the page itself.
- Pickup instructions: "Pickup at the Wing-Nerds kitchen counter inside IN-n-OUT, 5550 Troost Ave. [Exact route from entrance.] Give the name on your order."
- Catering inquiry fields: name · company · email · phone · event date/time · guest count · pickup/delivery · delivery address · dietary needs · budget range · requested items. Reply with availability, written price and terms; an inquiry is not a booking.
- Google review request: "Thanks for visiting Wing-Nerds. If you'd like to share your experience, leave an honest Google review here: [GOOGLE REVIEW LINK]." Ask everyone; no reward, no rating requirement.
- Yelp: a passive "Find us on Yelp" only; Yelp forbids asking for reviews.
- Review replies: "Thanks for stopping by, [name]. We're glad [specific detail] worked for you." For a problem: "Thanks for telling us. Please contact [kitchen contact] with the order details so we can review what happened." Never post private order details.
- SMS signup ("Join the Lab"): "Join the Lab for Wing-Nerds menu news and offers." Use the provider's approved consent form, frequency and STOP language; never import past order phone numbers as subscribers. Welcome: "You're in the Lab. Menu and pickup details: [LINK]. Reply STOP to opt out."
- Account inventory columns: platform · profile URL · handle · login email · owner · manager access · recovery contact · 2FA · order URL · last link test · NAP verified · status · next action. Passwords live only in the owner's password manager.

7. THE CURATED CAMPAIGN SHORTLIST

Twelve images chosen as the strongest current direction. Titles and intended use:

#	TITLE	TYPE	USE
01	The official lemonade Adult Meal	Product	Lead offer feature
02	Two finishes. One obsession. (wings)	Product	Menu feature / flavor spotlight
03	Small sliders. Big presence.	Product	Menu feature / carousel detail
04	The loaded dog	Product	New-product teaser (rename the dog first)
05	After the show	Lifestyle	Date-night campaign lead
06	A side of soul (vinyl room)	Lifestyle	Music and culture social
07	Game on. Flavor on. (arcade)	Lifestyle	Date night / entertainment tie-in
08	A sunny table for two	Lifestyle	Weekend lunch carousel
09	Lunch with good company (studio)	Lifestyle	Lunch campaign / corporate story
10	Between chapters (bookstore)	Lifestyle	Weekend date carousel
11	The weekend escape (mountain lodge)	Lifestyle	Seasonal / weekend campaign
12	Open up a better evening (box reveal)	Lifestyle	Box-reveal story / creator brief

All twelve are AI concepts that set the mood; most show Don Julio branding. Published offers need confirmed food, packaging and real customers.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 9

8. WHAT TO ADD AROUND THESE PICTURES

The mood is set. Real footage makes the new identity believable:

REAL FOOD	REAL TEAM	REAL PLACE	REAL PROOF
Sauce toss, slider build, fresh wings, an actual filled Adult Meal box	Staff in the uniform, friendly introductions, the signature yellow/lime frames	Street → entrance → counter route, readable signs, current hours	Consented customer moments and honest feedback, captured once service is ready

Keep the feed varied: lifestyle, food close-ups, box reveals, team moments and pickup guidance, tied together by one cover system, without every post looking like the same ad.

// FLAVOR LAB • PART 9

9. CORRECTIONS ABSORBED FROM THE LAUNCH-KIT REVIEW

EARLIER GUIDANCE	UPDATED
TikTok: add the website link once the Business account exists	A clickable TikTok website link needs 1,000+ followers or a Registered Business Account (TikTok). Until then, point to Instagram and post pickup directions
Instagram: unfollow down to about 500	Gradually remove inactive and spam follows ; there is no magic number
Instagram "Order food" button via Toast	Optional: confirm the partners and controls available in the owner's account first
"Pickup in 15–20 minutes"	That figure is what Toast's ordering page displays today ; owner confirms it before it's printed or advertised
"Ordering until 8:00 PM" on DoorDash	Owner decides the online cutoff; 8:00 PM matches posted hours but kitchen close-down needs may differ
Handle and domain availability	Checked Oct 8–9; availability can change at any time , so claim them before announcing
Google listing	Check for an existing listing before creating one (a duplicate gets merged or suspended)
Apple Maps	Restaurant "Actions" (order/pickup) need Apple approval before they show on the place card
YouTube banner	2560 × 1440 (minimum 2048 × 1152); keep text inside the centered 1235 × 338 safe area

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 9

10. CONTAINERS, THE MENU FOOD GALLERY AND THE REAL FOOD SHOOT

New packaging concepts (Oct 9): the box graffiti now wraps a shallow paper food tray: black, red-orange, lime and cream, the glasses chicken on the side and the winged oval on the front, plain inside. The Flavor Crew carries a graffiti takeaway bag with a round orange-rimmed seal sticker, plus a flat bag-front artwork and a "Flavor has a crew" menu-border poster ("Bold wings. Big flavor. Zero boring bites."). All are concepts for review, not production files.

Tray direction: use a standard folded paperboard food boat, not a custom rigid build. Get supplier quotes for two routes, an exterior branded label on a stock tray versus direct exterior printing, and start with the label if a full-print minimum is more stock than the store can use. The supplier confirms dimensions, grease resistance and food-contact materials; the image is not a dieline.

Menu food gallery: nine concept boards show every item on the 45-entry Toast menu in the graffiti tray: wings, signature sliders, slider combos, chicken sliders and strips, dogs, sides and sauces, drinks, add-ons, and the Adult Meal hero. Use them to plan the menu photos and the website menu. They print the current item names, including the liquor-brand names (Casamigos, Diablo 1738, 1800, Don Julio, Jack Daniels, VSOP), and the Adult Meal hero shows the Don Julio mini bottle. Re-render or relabel after the renames before any public use. Portions, recipes and cup sizes in the boards are not confirmed as the real product.

The real food shoot (first photos to capture): phone beside a window, no direct flash, clean counter, wiped rims, normal sale portions, one overhead and one low three-quarter shot per dish, originals kept.

#	CAPTURE
1	Wings and fries in the container customers actually receive (note count, flavor, portion)
2	Boneless wings, then the strips, so the shapes and coatings read clearly
3	One signature slider opened to show ingredients, plus its normal closed look
4	Each hot dog style with its real toppings and tray
5	Fries, corn, queso, mozzarella sticks and crab rangoon in their real containers
6	The real Adult Meal assembled in the real box with cookie and the correct lemonade cup
7	Both real lemonade cup sizes with lids, straws and labels
8	The current plain paper tray, empty, front and side, next to a ruler (with the supplier label or SKU)

Two treatments from the same photos: a faithful refresh (better light, white balance and background; the food itself unchanged, checked before use) and a branded presentation (the same food shown in the graffiti tray, labeled as a packaging mockup). Judge the real photos for portion consistency, sauce coverage, fry texture, bun condition, toppings, messy rims and tray fit.

1. WHAT EVERY OPTION ALREADY DOES

All four are working homepages, not pictures. They share one job list (Part 6):

JOB	HOW EACH CONCEPT HANDLES IT
Move orders to Toast pickup (commission-free)	"Order Pickup" is the main button in the header, the hero, the menu and a sticky phone bar. Delivery (DoorDash) is the secondary button.
Carry the rename	"Formerly Wing Boys" in the top strip, the hero and the footer. Restaurant schema lists Wing Boys as the alternate name.
Get people to the counter	A "We're inside the market" block: address, hours, phone, a simple map and four steps (Troost → market doors → kitchen counter → give your name).
Repeat customers	"Join the Lab" text/email signup (concept only; nothing is sent yet).
Catering	Lab Kits for 25, 50 or a full event, 24-hour lead time and a quote form.
The menu	Every price from the Toast menu (checked Oct 9), the 6/12/18/24 wing pricing, 14 flavors with heat levels, and the Flavor Crew.

Liquor-brand names are not used anywhere. The pages use proposed names, each marked "pending owner approval": Tennessee Smoke, Smooth Operator, Crunch Theory, Bacon Hypothesis, Diablo Dog, Citrus Lab Strips, Sweet Heat Theory, Crowned BBQ, Garlic Parm Formula, Firestarter Buffalo and Citrus Chili.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 10

2. THE FOUR OPTIONS

OPTION	PERSONALITY	STRONGEST AT	WATCH-OUTS
A · Street Lab	The graffiti box and new menu brought to life: black, spray drips, sticker badges, the Crew in the hero	Brand energy; closest to the real box and menu; Saucy / Crispy / Spicy picker that recommends flavors	Loudest option; needs real food photos to balance the graphics
B · The Flavor Lab	The nerd side done premium: menu charcoal, "formula" specimen cards, heat meters, grid-paper detail	Interactivity: Flavor Finder (wet/dry + heat filter), live batch pricing, Crew picker that jumps to flavors	Most "designed" option; copy must stay plain so it doesn't feel like a gimmick
C · Grown Folks	Editorial and cinematic: black and cream, big food photography, magazine type	Catering: a headcount slider suggests a kit and estimates wings, sliders and lemonade; three-step ordering; quote form. Clearest wayfinding	Depends most on great photography; the real shoot matters most here
D · Alternate Build	A second design team's take on the same three directions (its own Street Lab, Flavor Lab and Grown Folks)	Different typography and layouts to compare against A-C; has a built-in desktop/phone preview switcher	Uses the logo on a black rectangle; fewer images

Our recommendation: start from B's structure (it's the clearest at selling the menu and moving people to "Order Pickup"), take A's Crew picker and graffiti edges for personality, and use C's catering section and wayfinding steps as-is. Mixing parts is normal at this stage.

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 10

3. WHAT HAPPENS AFTER THE OWNER PICKS

STEP	WHAT	WHO
1	Owner picks a direction (or a mix) and approves item names, heat levels, phone and hours	Owner
2	Real photo shoot (food, box, counter, team, Uncle Keith) replaces every concept image; the photo checklist is in Part 9 §10	Owner + photographer
3	Build the six pages: Home, Menu, The Lab, Catering, Visit, Join	Marketing partner
4	Connect the real signup (Toast Marketing / SMS provider), the catering form (owner's email/phone), analytics, and the wingnerds.com domain	Marketing partner, owner approves accounts
5	Launch, then submit the site to Google Business Profile, Apple, Bing and every platform in Part 8	Both

// FLAVOR LAB · PART 10

4. KNOWN GAPS IN THE CONCEPTS (HONEST LIST)

- Photography: most lifestyle and meal concept art shows a Don Julio bottle, so the concepts use only bottle-free images plus "real customer photo goes here" slots. Lifestyle sections stay thin until the real shoot.
- Forms: signup and quote forms only show a confirmation; nothing is sent or stored.
- Not yet confirmed by the owner: Lab Kit prices and contents (shown as "priced on quote"), phone, hours, heat levels and the Saucy / Crispy / Spicy assignment of the three chickens.
- Ordering link: the Toast link still shows the Wing Boys name until Toast is renamed (Part 5).
- Review only: pages are marked "noindex" so Google doesn't list the concepts.

A smiling man with curly hair is holding a bag of Wing-Nerds. He is in a tropical setting with large green plants and a blue and white tiled wall in the background. The image is darkened to serve as a background for the text.
